ILLINOIS SUPREME COURT APPOINTS HON. CARLO D. COLOSIMO AS JUDGE IN KENDALL COUNTY

Justice Elizabeth M. Rochford and the Illinois Supreme Court have announced the appointment of Associate Judge Carlo D. Colosimo as a Circuit Judge in the Twenty-Third Judicial Circuit in Kendall County.

Judge Colosimo is being appointed to fill the vacancy created by the upcoming retirement of Judge Robert P. Pilmer, effective November 30, 2026. The appointment is effective December 1, 2026, and will conclude on December 4, 2028.

Judge Colosimo has served on the bench as an Associate Judge in the Twenty-Third Judicial Circuit since his appointment in 2022. Prior to this, he was a partner at the general practice firm Colosimo, Ewing & Smith, LLC from 2013 to 2022 and was an alderman for the United City of Yorkville from 2011 to 2019. He also served as an administrative hearing officer in the City of Plano and the Village of Oswego where he presided over and adjudicated ordinance violations. He is a former captain in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps and served from 2002 to 2009.

Judge Colosimo earned his bachelor's degree from Illinois State University and his Juris Doctor from the Northern Illinois University College of Law. Born in Argentina, he immigrated to the United States in 1979 and is a member of the Illinois Latino Judges Association.
