Roy O.GULLEY DIRECTOR SUPREME COURT BUILDING SPRINGFIELD 62706 217/782-7770

30 North Michigan Avenue Chicago 60602 312/793-3250

To the Honorable Chief Justice and Justices of the Supreme Court:

I tender herewith the Annual Report of the Administrative Office, for the calendar year 1979.

The following is a summary of some of the statistics reported in greater detail, herein:

(Appellate Court)

The number of new filings increased from 4,337 in 1978 to 5,651 in 1979, an increase of 30%. It must be noted, however, that 1,095 of the new filings were docketed after October 15, 1979, upon the filing of the notice of appeal, pursuant to amended Supreme Court Rules 303 and 606.

The number of cases terminated was 4,660 in 1979 compared to 4,472 in 1978, an increase of 4%.

There were 4,924 cases pending at the end of 1979 compared to 3,852 in 1978, an increase of 28%. However, again it must be noted that this includes the 1,095 cases docketed since October 15,1979, upon the filing of the notice of appeal.

(Circuit Courts)

The number of new filings, in 1979, was 3,831,957 compared to 3,751,826 in 1978, an increase of 2%. The major increases were in the categories of Law (Jury and Non-jury), Chancery, Family (Non-support), Felonies, Misdemeanors, Ordinance Violations and Juvenile.

In the Circuit Court of Cook County, Law Division (Law-Jury Trial Section) there were 4,719 new jury filings, compared with 4,329 in 1978. There were 19,048 jury cases terminated in 1979 compared to 15,354 in 1978, an increase of 24%.

Delay, from date of filing to date of verdict, increased from 47.8 months in 1978 to 49.7 months in 1979.

(Age of Pending Cases Reports)

At the direction of the Supreme Court, effective June 30, 1979, the circuit court clerks and judges were required to file age of pending cases reports. There has been 100% compliance with this order. This requirement has resulted in each circuit reviewing its pending caseload and the disposition of many older and dormant cases.

Respectfully submitted,

Pulley

Roy 0. Gulley Director

ACTIVITIES OF THE JUDICIARY

The Supreme Court

Jurisdiction

The Illinois Supreme Court is the highest court in the Illinois judicial system. It has original and exclusive jurisdiction in cases involving the redistricting of the General Assembly and in cases relating to the ability of the Governor to serve or resume office. It may exercise original jurisdiction in cases relating to revenue, mandamus, prohibition or habeas corpus and as may be necessary to the complete determination of any case on review. It has direct appellate jurisdiction in appeals from judgments of Circuit Courts imposing a sentence of death and as the Court may provide by rule in other cases. Appeals from the Appellate Court to the Supreme Court are a matter of right if a guestion under the Constitution of the United States or of this State arises for the first time in and as a result of the action of the Appellate Court, or if a division of the Appellate Court certifies that a case decided by it involves a question of such importance that the case should be decided by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court may also provide by rule for appeals from the Appellate Court in other cases. (III. Const., Art. VI, Secs. 4 and 9).

Organization

The Supreme Court consists of seven Justices. Three are elected from the First Judicial District (Cook County) and one from each of the other four judicial districts. Four Justices constitute a quorum and the concurrence of four is necessary for a decision. One of the Justices is selected as Chief Justice for a term of three years. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 31, seniority among the Justices is determined by length of continuous service. Supreme Court Justices are elected for terms of 10 years. (Art. VI, Secs. 2, 3, 4 and 10).

The Court holds five terms each year during the months of January, March, May, September and November. At each term, the Court issues opinions, holds conferences, hears oral arguments, rules on motions, considers modifications to Supreme Court rules and meets with the Administrative Director to consider administrative and budgetary matters.

When in session, the Justices reside in the Supreme Court Building in Springfield. In addition, the Court meets regularly in its Chicago quarters in the Richard J. Daley Center. Once each year the Court hears oral arguments at the University of Chicago Law School and at the University of Illinois College of Law in Champaign.

Administrative and Supervisory Authority

General administrative and supervisory authority over the entire, unified Illinois judicial system is vested in the Supreme Court. This authority is exercised by the Chief Justice in accordance with the Court's rules. An Administrative Director and staff, appointed by the Supreme Court, are provided to assist the Chief Justice in his duties (Art. VI, Sec. 16). This unique, constitutional grant of administrative authority has served as the basis for transforming the Illinois judicial system from an unstructured and undisciplined system into an efficient mechanism for the administration of justice.

The administrative authority of the Supreme Court over the Illinois judicial system is unrestricted. However, in addition to conferring general administrative authority upon the Court, the Constitution identifies specific areas of judicial administration the Court shall or may act upon. These areas include:

- Prescribing the number of Appellate Divisions in each Judicial District;
- (2) Assignment of judges to Appellate Divisions;
- (3) Prescribing the time and place for Appellate Divisions to sit;
- (4) Providing for the manner of appointing Associate Judges;
- (5) Providing for matters assignable to Associate Judges;
- (6) In the absence of a law, filling judicial vacancies by appointment;
- (7) Prescribing rules of conduct for judges;
- (8) Assignment of retired judges to judicial service;
- (9) Appointment of an Administrative Director and staff;
- (10) Temporary assignment of judges;
- (11) Providing for an annual Judicial Conference and reporting thereon annually in writing to the General Assembly;
- (12) Appointment of the Supreme Court Clerk and other non-judicial officers of the Court.

In addition, the Court has a number of other administrative functions pursuant to statute or which are inherent in the operation of the Court.

The Court approves, after preparation by the Administrative Director, the annual judicial budget; employs two law clerks for each Justice to assist in researching the law and preparing memoranda; selects a Marshal who attends each term of the Court and performs such other duties, at the direction of the Court, which are usually performed by the sheriff in trial courts; and it appoints the Supreme Court Librarian who is in charge of keeping the library up-to-date and preserving all books and documents in the library. Also, the Court appoints the State Appellate Defender and two persons to the Appellate Defender Commission; a member of the Board of Commissioners of the Illinois Defender Project (the Court has designated William M. Madden, Deputy Director of the Administrative Office as its appointee); and judicial members of the Board of Trustees of the Judges' Retirement System. Also, from time to time, the Court appoints committees, as the need arises, to study and suggest amendments in substantive and procedural law, Supreme Court rules, and other matters affecting the administration of justice.

Caseload Summary

During the 1979 terms, the Supreme Court sat for a total of 71 days. The seven Justices of the Court delivered 219 full opinions and 22 supervisory orders; ruled on 61 petitions for rehearing; ruled on 1,026 petitions for leave to appeal; and ruled on 1,517 other motions. Of the 1,026 petitions for leave to appeal, 124 or 12% were allowed.

The Court received 1,346 new filings as compared to 1.250 new filings in 1978.

In addition, the Court admitted 2,418 new lawyers to the practice of law in Illinois.

Supreme Court Rules

In the exercise of its inherent power to adopt rules governing practice and procedure, supplemented by constitutional directives to exercise that authority in specific areas (Art. VI, Secs. 5, 6, 8, 13, 16 and 17), the Supreme Court, during 1979, added, repealed or amended the following rules:

Effective March 1, 1979 Rule 284

Effective October 15, 1979

Rules 22, 24, 291, 303, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 315, 316, 317, 321, 322 (repealed), 323, 324, 327, 328 (repealed), 330, 331, 341, 342, 344, 361, 526, 529, 551, 606, 607, 608 and 612.

Effective November 15, 1979 Rule 553

Rule 302 (a) governing direct appeals to the Supreme Court was amended, effective July 1, 1979, to eliminate direct review of orders of the Industrial Commission, but this provision was reinstated effective July 1, 1979.

Amendment of Supreme Court Rules Governing Procedures on Appeal

On October 15, 1979, amendments to Supreme Court rules governing procedures on appeal became effective. Some of the more significant changes are described briefly, as follows:

Rules 303 and 606 provide for the filing, by the clerk of the trial court, of a copy of the notice of appeal with the clerk of the reviewing court, whereupon the case shall be entered upon the docket. Thereafter, within 14 days, the party filing the notice of appeal shall file, with the clerk of the reviewing court, a docketing statement, together with proof of service and a $25 filing fee. Rule 303 sets forth the form of the docketing statement for civil cases and Rule 606 sets forth the form for criminal cases.

Rule 321 eliminates the requirement of filing a praecipe of record, and provides that the record on appeal shall consist of the judgment appealed from, the notice of appeal, the entire original common law record, unless it is stipulated or ordered by the trial or reviewing court that less is required, and the report of proceedings. Rule 322 which provided for a praecipe was repealed.

Rule 342 eliminates the requirement for filing excerpts from the record, and it permits the filing of an abstract of the record only upon the order of the reviewing court. It also requires that the appellant's brief contain a complete table of contents, with page references, of the record on appeal.

Judicial Appointments

The Illinois Constitution, Article VI, Section 12, provides that, in the absence of a law providing for the filling of vacancies in the office of Supreme, Appellate or Circuit Judge, such vacancies may be filled by appointment by the Supreme Court. In the exercise of this authority, the Supreme Court, during 1979, made the following appointments of attorneys and sitting judges (an asterisk (*) after a judge's name indicates that he was a sitting judge who was elevated to higher judicial office):

Clerk of the Supreme Court

The Constitution of 1970, Art. VI, Section 18, made an important advance in removing the Clerk of the Supreme Court and the Clerk of the Appellate Court, in each Judicial District, from the elective process, effective upon the expiration of the elective terms of the incumbent clerks. Section 18 provides that the Supreme Court and the Appellate Court judges, in each Judicial District, shall appoint a clerk and other nonjudicial officers. Pursuant to this provision, the Supreme Court, on November 26, 1974, appointed Mr. Clell L. Woods as Clerk of the Supreme Court, effective January 13, 1975.

The duties of the Clerk, in general, include the receipt of filings and the maintenance of dockets, records, files and statistics on the activities of the Supreme Court. The offices of the Clerk are located in the Supreme Court Building in Springfield. During 1979 the staff of the Clerk's office consisted of 13 employees.

1979 Annual Report of the Supreme Court to the General Assembly

The Illinois Constitution, Article VI, Section 17, provides:

"The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for an annual judicial conference to consider the work of the courts and to suggest improvements in the administration of justice and shall report thereon annually in writing to the General Assembly not later than January 31." The Chief Justice, on behalf of the Supreme Court, submitted the 1979 report, on January 31, 1980. The text of the report is set forth below:

January 31, 1980

Honorable Philip J. Rock, President Senate of the State of Illinois Capitol Building Springfield, Illinois 62706

Honorable William A. Redmond, Speaker House of Representatives State of Illinois Capitol Building Springfield, Illinois 62706

Gentlemen:

The following report is submitted in accordance with Section 17 of Article VI of the Illinois Constitution of 1970 which provides: "The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for an annual judicial conference to consider the work of the courts and to suggest improvements in the administration of justice and shall report thereon annually in writing to the General Assembly not later than January 31."

In making the suggestions contained in this and in prior reports, the Supreme Court is fully cognizant of the respective roles of the General Assembly and the courts, and does not intend to intrude upon the prerogatives of the General Assembly in determining what legislation should be enacted. It is gratifying, however, to note that the General Assembly over the years has acted to implement many of the suggestions made by the Court. I respectfully submit that the attached suggestions merit the consideration of the General Assembly.

Respectfully,

Joseph H. Goldenhersh Chief Justice

An Effective System For The Enforcement Of Support And Maintenance Orders Should Be Funded By The General Assembly

The alarming extent of disregard for court ordered support obligations to children and former spouses deserves the prompt attention of the General Assembly. Every Illinois citizen shares in the cost of allowing the widespread non-payment of support obligations to go unchecked.

Information from the Illinois Legislative Studies Center analysis of support delinguencies for the period 1965-1970 indicates that after the first year there was only 43% compliance with court ordered support in divorces granted in 1970 and that full compliance had dropped to only 19% after six years. It is a sad commentary that within one year after the court's order for support 57% of the payors were delinquent, with the delinquency growing to 81% of the payors within another five years. Most indicative of alarming ineffectiveness of our present system of support enforcement is the fact that the same study shows that only 1% of the 81% of the payors who were in non-compliance were the subject of any legal enforcement action. The Legislative Studies Center continues to gather data on 8,800 divorced families in Illinois. The comparable figures for the 1970-75 period should be available in the next few months.

Recent action by the General Assembly witnesses our shared concern over the current situation. Public Act 80-1377 enhanced the ability of the Child and Spouse Support Unit of the Department of Public Aid to collect support obligations through enforcement agreements with local governmental units or individuals. Public Act 81-786 has prescribed specific contempt sanctions for failure to meet support obligations.

As recommended by the Illinois Judicial Conference study of enforcement of support in 1976-78, a mandatory system of payment of all support obligations directly through the court system seems to be the initial step in reversing the increasing disregard for the economic obligations to children and former spouses. The Clerk of the Circuit Court stands in the best position to administer the payment process, keep an accurate accounting of all payments, and inform the court on a regular basis of all delinquent accounts requiring enforcement action. We note the existence of H.B. 2188 in the 81st General Assembly, currently assigned to the House Judiciary I Interim Study Calendar, which provides for all payments to go through the circuit court.

To effectively deal with the non-support problem in Illinois, the resources of State government are necessary. To assure a uniform expectation of collecting arrearages, increased funding for circuit clerks on the State level must be considered. Past experience indicates that the system must be mandatory with all payments made through the clerk's office. The resources necessary to provide clerks with the staff to accommodate all support payments can only come through legislative action. We renew our recommendations of 1975 and 1978 in suggesting that the General Assembly consider an appropriate statutory method whereby mandatory automatic enforcement procedures for support and maintenance orders can be initiated through State funding assistance for the circuit clerks' offices.

The General Assembly Should Implement The Constitutional Guarantee To A Prompt Preliminary Hearing In Criminal Cases

"No person shall be held to answer for a crime punishable by death or by imprisonment in the penitentiary unless either the initial charge has been brought by an indictment of a grand jury or the person has been given a prompt preliminary hearing to establish probable cause." Ill Const. Art. I, §7.

Under this constitutional provision an accused held on a criminal charge punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary must be afforded a prompt hearing to determine the existence of probable cause. Violation of the right to a prompt preliminary hearing has been complained of in serveral cases presented to this Court since the effective date of our new Constitution. Similarly, cases alleging violation of this right have been presented to the Appellate Court. See, e.g., People v. Eisele, 77 III. App. 3d 766, 396 N.E. 2d 662 (1979), and cases collected there, and People v. Grant, 69 III. App. 3d 940, 387 N.E. 2d 1087 (1979).

Recently our Appellate Court was confronted with the most egregious violation of the constitutional right to a prompt preliminary hearing ever presented to an Illinois reviewing court-a 176 day delay after date of arrest. In People v. Kirkley, 60 III. App. 3d 746, 377 N.E. 2d 540 (1978), the Appellate Court reversed defendants' convictions. In the principal opinion, Mr. Justice Scott observed that courts are always reluctant to usurp a legislative prerogative by judicial determination; however, in the absence of legislative guidelines or sanctions for violations of this basic constitutional right, the courts must provide a remedy and in this case the only sanction or remedy was reversal of defendants' convictions. He further stated: "We are hopeful that our General Assembly will soon implement the constitutional provision " 377 N.E. 2d 540, 543. In a specially concurring opinion, Mr. Presiding Justice Stengel noted that our Court has called upon the General Assembly to provide sanctions and that "the delay in giving an accused a prompt preliminary hearing is a serious deprivation of his constitutional right.' Id. at 544. Mr. Justice Barry in his specially concurring opinion observed that our Court urged a legislative response to the problem not only in Howell, infra, "but very explicitly in the 1975, 1976 and 1977 Annual Reports of the Supreme Court to the General Assembly....'' Id. at 544.

In Eisele, supra, the Appellate Court was faced with a 86 day delay after defendant's arrest during which a preliminary hearing was not held. Under the circumstances presented in the case, the court ruled defendant waived the issue that his right to a prompt preliminary hearing was violated; however, the court observed that the delay in affording defendant a preliminary hearing "may well have presented a violation [of §7 of article I of the Illinois Constitution]." 396 N.E. 2d 662, 665. In Grant, supra, the Appellate Court pointed out that while some measures have been taken by the circuit court of Cook County to promote the prompt commencement of preliminary hearings, recourse is still lacking for violations of the constitutional right. The court noted: "The Supreme Court again brought the need for implementing legislation to the attention of the General Assembly in their 1977 annual report. [Citation.] However, such legislation has yet to be enacted into law." 387 N.E. 2d 1087, 1090.

Considering the frequency of the violations and the possibility of future abuse, the time has arrived, if not passed, to fashion sanctions to assure and protect the right to a prompt preliminary hearing guaranteed by §7 of article I.

In People v. Howell, 60 Ill. 2d 117, 324 N.E. 2d 403 (1975), this Court concluded:

"We consider the delays in giving an accused a prompt preliminary hearing to be a serious deprivation of his constitutional rights and we are deeply concerned about the number of cases in which an accused has not had a prompt probable-cause determination. We consider this a subject for appropriate legislative action and we strongly urge the General Assembly to consider the prompt implementation of this constitutional provision." 324 N.E. 2d 403, 405-406.

The Supreme Court is aware that the General Assembly in the past has considered measures to implement the constitutional provision (e.g., H.B. 3420, 79th G.A., vetoed by the Governor; H.B. 1686, 80th G.A., failed in committee); however, the Court once again recommends appropriate legislative action to implement the constitutional guarantee of a prompt preliminary hearing to establish probable cause in every case in which a person is charged with an offense punishable by death or imprisonment in the penitentiary.

A Voluntary, Unincorporated Association Should Be Able To Sue And To Be Sued In Its Own Name

"Thus, the common law rule was that a voluntary unincorporated association could not sue or be sued in its own name. If an action was to be brought by or against the association it was necessary that all members be joined as parties. [Citations.] This has been the generally accepted rule in Illinois. [Citations.]" American Fed. of Tech. Eng., Local 144 v. La Jeunesse, 63 III. 2d 263, 347 N.E. 2d 712 (1976) at 714.

By a divided vote our Court in La Jeunesse upheld the long-standing Illinois rule that a voluntary unincorporated association generally cannot sue or be sued in its own name, and we noted only two exceptions to the rule: By court decision a representative suit "in equity" may be brought in the names of a portion of the association members suing for themselves and in behalf of all other association members, and by statute certain unincorporated associations may sue and be sued in their own name in actions concerning their real estate (III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 30, §185). This Court then observed that changes in the rule in other jurisdictions have usually been through legislation, and the Court concluded: "If there are to be...changes in the rule it should come through legislative action." 347 N.E. 2d 712, 714.

Our Court believes the demise of the archaic legal fiction that an unincorporated association has no separate legal existence independent of the members who compose it and therefore cannot sue or be sued in its own name is long overdue. The rule unfairly and effectively deprives aggrieved persons and voluntary unincorporated associations of a legal remedy in the courts of Illinois. Cf. dissenting opinion in La Jeunesse, supra, and specially concurring opinion in Mulligan v. Teamsters Union, Local No. 971, 59 Ill. App. 3d 587, 375 N.E. 2d 891 (1978).

The Supreme Court urges the General Assembly to continue its deliberations (e.g., H.B. 2588 and H.B. 2714, 81st G.A.), assigned to House Judiciary I Interim Study Calendar) to modify the common law rule in Illinois that a voluntary unincorporated association cannot sue or be sued in its own name.

Administrative Agency Or Person, Not Circuit Judge Should Assess Inheritance Tax

Section 11 of the "Inheritance and Transfer Tax Law," approved June 14, 1909, as amended (III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 120, §385) provides that a circuit judge, designated and assigned by the chief judge of the circuit, shall ascertain whether any transfer of any property is subject to an inheritance tax, and if it be subject to the tax, the circuit judge shall assess and fix the cash value of the estates and the tax due. Section 11 further provides that any person dissatisfied with the circuit judge's appraisement, assessment, allowance of fees and expenses, etc. may appeal the circuit judge's ruling to the circuit court. Our Court recently had occasion to decide whether §11 violated the doctrine of separation of powers and the appellate rulemaking authority of the Supreme Court as contained in article II, §1 and article VI, §§6, 16 of the 1970 Constitution. In re Estate of Barker, 63 III. 2d 113, 345 N.E. 2d 484 (1976).

A majority of our Court determined that $11 was constitutional and that while the assessment of taxes by the circuit judge is a nonjudicial function, $4(d) of the Transition Schedule of our Constitution allowed the circuit courts to exercise certain nonjudicial functions vested by law as of December 31, 1963. We further determined that the "appeal" from the circuit judge's assessment order to the circuit court was not an appeal as used in article VI of the Constitution but rather a judicial review of administrative action. We concluded:

"However, that there should be a review of an order of the 'circuit judge' by the 'circuit court' is an anomaly which often results, as was the case here, in a judge incongruously reviewing the correctness of his own order. We consider the legislature should provide for the assessment to be made by an adminstrative body or person and for a right of review in the circuit court." 345 N.E. 2d 484, 488-489.

In three prior Annual Reports to the General Assembly (Reports dated January 31, 1977, January 31, 1978 and January 31, 1979), the Supreme Court recommended legislation to remedy this anomaly. The Court again commends this matter to the General Assembly for its consideration.

Illinois Should Adopt A Rule Of Comparative Negligence For Apportioning Damages In Tort Cases

"In court actions based upon defendant's negligent conduct any contributory negligence by the plaintiff is a deterrent to recovery in all judicial systems, based upon the English common law. In some jurisdictions, it is a complete bar. In others, it simply diminishes the plaintiff's damages. In still others, one rule is applied to some types of cases, and another rule, to other types of cases. The practice of diminishing plaintiff's damages to the extent of his contributory negligence, instead of barring his recovery, has come to be known as 'comparative negligence.'

"The proponents of comparative negligence base their most persuasive arguments on the broad philosophical principle that it is more just. In addition, they contend that it will bring about more jury waivers because plaintiffs will no longer fear the application of the hard rules, frequently ignored by juries, that a plaintiff cannot recover if he is guilty of contributory negligence, no matter how slight. This, they say, will result in more out of court settlements. The opponents of comparative negligence say that any injustice arising from barring recovery is in practice tempered or compromised by the jury; that if recoverv is made easier for the plaintiff, more suits will be filed and insurance rates will be raised. They further argue that fixing exact percentages will confuse juries.

"After a thorough study of comparative negligence, [the Illinois Judicial Conference Committee on Comparative Negligence] is of the opinion that the reasons advanced for this rule rather than the strict contributory negligence rule provide a better standard of justice and are more persuasive.

"CONFERENCE ACTION:

"Resolution adopted favoring a comparative negligence rule...." 1964 Ill. Jud. Conf. Rpt. 110, 111, 113, 117.

Illinois continues to adhere to the position that a plaintiff's negligence acts as a complete bar to recovery in a common law action for damages. Several years ago, a majority of our Court declined to judicially revise Illinois law in this regard by rejecting the notion that the Supreme Court should abandon the Illinois rule, long recognized as the law in this State, merely because the Court is of the opinion that it might decide otherwise were the question a new one. In Maki v. Frelk, 40 III. 2d 193, 239 N.E. 2d 445 (1968), we said:

"After full consideration we think, however, that such a far-reaching change, if desirable, should be made by the legislature rather than by the court. The General Assembly is the department of government to which the constitution has entrusted the power of changing the laws. [Citation.]

"Counsel on both sides have argued this case at length, supplying the court with a comprehensive review of many authorities. But we believe that on the whole the considerations advanced in support of a change in the rule might better be addressed to the legislature." 239 N.E. 2d 445, 447.

Nevertheless, it is important to emphasize that the Supreme Court agrees with the Judicial Conference report and believes that apportioning damages through a comparative negligence rule is a logical and just method of distributing responsibility according to fault. Too, our Appellate Court recently urged consideration be given to modifying the rule of contributory negligence. In Allison v. Davies, 64 Ill. App. 3d 900, 381 N.E. 2d 1034 (1978), the majority opinion acknowledged that modification of the rule "would require substantive and procedural formulations which are best suited to legislative action." 381 N.E. 2d 1034, 1036. In his specially concurring opinion, Mr. Justice Alloy spelled out the inequities of the contributory negligence doctrine and observed: "Illinois is in the minority of jurisdictions in adhering to the present rule in force in this State, and the judges and virtually all of the authorities in the field of tort law have recommended that a comparative negligence doctrine be adopted in this State." Id. at 1040. The Supreme Court agrees and recommends that the General Assembly adopt a method of apportioning damages through a comparative negligence rule.

"The hardship of the doctrine of contributory negligence upon the plaintiff is readily apparent. It places upon one party the entire burden of a loss for which two are, by hypothesis, responsible. The negligence of the defendant has played no less a part in causing the damage; the plaintiff's deviation from the community standard of conduct may even be relatively slight, and the defendant's more extreme; the injured man is in all probability, for the very reason of his injury, the less able of the two to bear the financial burden of his loss; and the answer of the law to all this is that the defendant goes scott free of all liability and the plaintiff bears it all." Prosser, The Law of Torts, at 443 (3rd ed. 1964).

The Court is unpersuaded by the argument that there are practical considerations which dictate a retention of the contributory negligence rule. Some people assert that the adoption of a rule of comparative negligence would increase litigation and court congestion, encourage negligent driving and cause insurance rates to rise. However, even if there were any basis for such "practical" arguments, the cardinal concern is whether the rule proposed would better serve to attain more just dispositions in negligence cases. The so-called practical problems must properly be considered subordinate to the primary consideration for more just judicial dispositions of these cases.

The Methods Of Computing The Rate Base For Public Utilities Should Be Re-Examined

Very recently our Court again had occasion to determine the validity of the method by which the Illinois Commerce Commission establishes the rates a utility may charge its customers. In Union Electric Co. v. Illinois Commerce Commission, 77 III. 2d 364, 396 N.E. 2d 510 (1979), we reviewed §§30, 32 and 36 of "An Act concerning public utilities" (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 111-2/3, §§30, 32 and 36) (Public Utilities Act) which require that the value of a utility's property be ascertained and that the utility receive a reasonable return on the value of its property as determined by the Illinois Commerce Commission. We pointed out that in a long line of cases this Court has consistently interpreted "value" to mean "fair value" and not "original cost", and we stated that our interpretation in effect has been adopted by the legislature. Consequently, our Court reaffirmed its prior decisions interpreting the word "value" and concluded that "fair- or present-value" rather than "original-cost" is the proper method of determining the value of a utility's property.

However, this Court did acknowledge that a majority of jurisdictions -38- follow the original-cost method. Union Electric Co., 396 N.E. 2d 510, 517. We then offered, in view of the history of the Public Utilities Act and our Court's adherence for nearly 60 years to the present-value method, that: "If there are evils in the present-value method which warrant its abandonment in favor of the original-cost method, the change should be by legislation. [Citation.] We invite the legislature's consideration of these two competing methods of computing rate base." 396 N.E. 2d 510, 518. The Supreme Court recommends this subject for the General Assembly's consideration.

Sections 21.1 And 22 Of The "Limitations Act" Should Be Clarified

In Anderson v. Wagner, 79 III. 2d 295, decided October 2, 1979, our Court ruled that §21.1 of "An Act in regard to limitations" (III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 83, §22.1) (Limitations Act) was constitutional. That section of the Limitations Act provides for a special limitation period for medical malpractice actions against physicians and hospitals. The maximum period ordinarily permitted within which to bring a cause of action for medical malpractice is four years after the act, omission or occurence alleged to have caused injury or death.

An issue raised in Anderson, which our Court deemed unnecessary to decide, concerned the relationship between §21.1 and §22 of the Limitations Act, a tolling provision, where fraudulent concealment of the negligent acts is alleged. Ill. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 83, §23. Section 22 provides that if a person fraudulently conceals the cause of action, the action may be commenced "within five years" (emphasis supplied) after discovery that the injured person had such cause of action. III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 83, §23. On this issue we concluded: "By discussing §22 of the Limitations Act we do not hold that it is applicable in medical malpractice cases. That question is not before us. There are, however, uncertainties concerning the applicability of §22 of the Limitations Act which we need not resolve in this opinion but to which we invite the attention of the General Assembly." Anderson, 79 III. 2d 295, 322. The Supreme Court commends this matter to the consideration of the General Assembly.

The Running Of The Period In A Casualty Insurance Contract Within Which Suit Must Be Commenced Should By Law Be Tolled Under Certain Circumstances

The standard policy for casualty insurance delivered to insureds in Illinois contains this limitation clause: "No suit or action on this policy for the recovery of any claim shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless all of the requirements of this policy shall have been complied with, and unless commenced within twelve months next after inception of the loss." (Emphasis supplied.) See Stofer v. Motor Vehicle Casualty Co., 68 III. 2d 361, 369 N.E. 2d 875 (1977). Relevant standard requirements require an insured who sustains a loss to file with the insurer notice of claim and proofs of loss within the time period specified in the policy. Where the need arises, the insurer will, of course, investigate a claim made by its insured and may deny the claim; however, the 12 month period from date of loss within which the insured may file suit continues to run during the period the claim is being investigated by the insurer.

It is well settled that absent conduct of an insurer that constitutes waiver or estoppel an insured who suffers a loss cannot institute suit against his insurer after 12 months after the inception of his loss. Midwest Triangle Paint Works, Inc. v. Firemen's Insurance Co., 36 III. App. 2d 65, 183 N.E. 2d 562 (1962). As stated in Florsheim v. Travelers Indemnity Co. of Illinois, 75 III. App. 3d 298, 393 N.E. 2d 1223 (1979): "It has been well established in Illinois for nearly a century that the period of limitations runs from the date of loss [citation] and not from the time the loss became pavable sixty days after the proofs of loss are filed [citations] or from the date of the arbitration award. [Citation.]" 393 N.E. 2d 1223, 1232. Our Court believes this ancient principle to be unfair and harsh, particularly where the insurer consumes a long period of time in investigation. leaving the insured a short time in which to investigate the facts to determine whether a suit should be filed. Too, the rule encourages litigation because the prudent insured is required to file suit to preserve his rights before it has been determined whether the claim has any merit.

Some jurisidctions have provided that the limitation period within which the insured must file suit is tolled during the insurer's investigation of the claim. Florsheim at 1231. Our Court believes that the tolling requirement is a better rule, and we invite the General Assembly's consideration of this matter.

Service Of Written Demand In "Mechanics' Lien Act" Should Be By Mail

Section 34 of "An Act relating to contractors' and material men's liens, known as mechanics' liens" (III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 82, §34) (Act) provides: "Upon written demand of the owner, lienor, or any person interested in the real estate, or their agent or attorney, served on the person claiming the lien, or his agent or attorney, requiring suit to be commenced to enforce the lien or answer to be filed in a pending suit, suit shall be commenced or answer filed within 30 days thereafter, or the lien shall be forfeited." (Emphasis supplied.)

Our Appellate Court has held that §34 of the Act requires the "written demand...served on the person" to be by personal service and that the legislature did not intend to allow service by mail under §34. The court went on to comment: "Although the use of certified mail to effect service is becoming widespread..., it is the duty of the legislature to make such a determination and this court cannot alter the plain meaning of the statute." M.L. Ensminger Co., Inc. v. Chicago Title & Trust Co., 74 III. App. 3d 677, 393 N.E. 2d 663, 665.

In our Annual Report to the General Assembly, dated January 31, 1979, this Court suggested that service and return of process should be uniform in all suitable cases, and we referred to service by certified and registered mail. The Supreme Court believes that the written notice in §34 of the Act could be served as suggested above, and we commend this matter to the General Assembly for its consideration.

Identity Of Publishers Of Political Materials

Section 29-14 of The Election Code (III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 46, §29-14) presently provides that it is a Class A misdemeanor to publish, circulate or distribute pamphlets, circulars, hand bills or other printed material relative to the candidacy of any person seeking "nomination or election to any public office," which does not bear thereon in plain type the name and address of the person or persons, or the names and addresses of the officers of the firm, organization, association, league or other body causing such matter to be published and distributed. During a recent retention election, vicious and scandalous cartoons were circulated which impugned the character of at least one circuit judge standing for retention and which did not bear the name of any person or organization responsible for their creation or distribution. There has been some question as to whether §29-14 of The Election Code, as presently phrased, is applicable to retention elections. The Supreme Court invites the General Assembly to review the provisions of §29-14 to determine if they should be amended to apply to publishing, circulating, or distributing materials relative to the candidacy of any person seeking "nomination or election to, or retention in, any public office."

Amount To Be Deducted From Bail Deposit For Defender Services

Section 110-7(g) of the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963 (III. Rev. Stat., 1978 Supp., ch. 38, §110-7(g)) provides as follows:

"Whenever a defendant who has been admitted to bail utilizes the services of a public defender or other appointed counsel, the amount deposited may be used to reimburse the county funding legal services."

There is no specific standard act by which trial judges are to assess the precise amount of the bail deposit that may be diverted to the county for reimbursement for the legal services provided by the public defender or other appointed counsel. The General Assembly might wish to consider whether the Code should be amended to provide that the amount assessed be similar to that paid to private counsel under $133-3(c) of the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963 (III. Rev. Stat., 1978 Supp., ch. 38, $113-3(c)).

Performance Bonds For Official Court Reporters

Occasionally an official court reporter will leave the employ of the State to assume either a position as an official court reporter in another state or as a freelance reporter in the private practice of shorthand reporting. When requests for transcripts concerning cases taken by such reporters as official reporters in this State are received, some few reporters have been less than diligent—some have even failed to produce the transcripts. Perhaps the General Assembly could consider the feasibility of requiring official court reporters to post performance bonds. The costs of having a transcript prepared by someone else or the losses resulting from being unable to obtain a transcript could be recovered from a performance bond. Perhaps that would be an appropriate method to insure that losses suffered in these matters would be covered.

Need To Experiment With Computer-Aided Transcription

The speed with which court reporters can prepare transcripts of hearings determines, to a large extent, the delay the parties will experience on appeal. Modern technology has provided a possible solution to the problem of delay in obtaining verbatim transcripts. Computer-aided transcription is a method by which a court reporter's shorthand symbols can be translated into English words, automatically, by a computer which has been programmed to recognize, translate and transcribe the symbols. Our Administrative Office experimented with computer-aided transcription some time ago. Unfortunately, that early experiment was not a complete success, both because of the primitive state of the technical arts at that time and the fact that official court reporters did not then fully support the idea of computer-aided transcription. Recently, however, our Administrative Director, court reporters and several judges have surveyed new technology which is superior to that which was available 5 years ago. It also appears that many official court reporters are now anxious to cooperate with the Administrative Office to determine the feasibility of introducing computer-aided transcription as a regular method of producing transcripts.

The alternative to introducing technology to speed the preparation of the record on appeal is to hire additional official court reporters. Inasmuch as it ordinarily takes a court reporter three times as long to transcribe as it took to record the material in court, we might need to add up to three times as many court reporters as we now have, if we were to have immediate transcription. That would be more expensive than introducing computer-aided transcription. We request that the General Assembly appropriate to the Supreme Court a sum sufficient to carry out experiments in this area during fiscal year 1980-81. Our Administrative Director will be able to provide figures to show the probable cost of such experiments. It is anticipated that successful experiments could lay the ground work for the introduction of computer-aided transcription throughout the State, resulting in a substantial increase in the efficiency of official court reporters, a reduction in delay on appeal and, ultimately, savings in the cost of reporting cases in this State.

Nomination Of Judicial Candidates

Very recently it was argued in our Court that §7-61 of The Election Code (III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 46, §7-61) (Code), as it pertains to filling vacancies in the nomination of judicial candidates at a primary election, is contrary to §12(a) of article VI of the 1970 Constitution. Thurston v. State Board of Elections, 76 III. 2d 385, 392 N.E. 2d 1349 (1979). The constitution in pertinent part provides in §12(a) of article VI that "Supreme, Appellate and Circuit Judges shall be nominated at primary elections or by petition", and §7-61 of the Code, applicable to nominations of judicial candidates by §7-1 (III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 46, §7-1), states in part that vacancies in nominations "shall be filled by the managing committee ... of the respective political party for the territorial area in which such vacancy occurs." III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 46, §7-61.

In Thurston, supra, one of the political parties failed to nominate at the primary election a candidate for the office of resident circuit judge, and the party's managing committee - the party's county central committee filled the vacancy by nominating a candidate. That candidate was subsequently elected in the general election, but the validity of his nomination was contested. Our Court deemed it unnecessary to decide the constitutional issue and held that the doctrine of laches barred the challenge to the nomination of the successful candidate.

Nevertheless, we believe it important to note that the official publication of the proposed 1970 Constitution stated in reference to Separate Question No. 2A, which is now §12 of article VI of the 1970 Constitution, that "candidates for judge will continue to be elected, but the method of nomination will be changed. The existing 'party convention' method for the nomination of judges will be replaced by primary elections or by the method of petition." Page 19 of Official Text With Explanation of Proposed 1970 Constitution, published by the Secretary of State. In commenting on the rationale for changing the party convention method of nominating judges, the counsel to the Committee on Judiciary of the Constitutional Convention has stated:

"Although the 1962 judicial amendment [to the 1870 Constitution] provided for the nomination of all judges by 'party convention or primary,' [footnote omitted] the legislature opted for nomination by party convention. Dissatisfaction with this method was widespread....So pervasive had professional and public criticism of convention choice become that even the minority recommendations of the Committee on Judiciary of the Constitutional Convention...proposed the elimination of the convention method of nomination and the substitution of the party primary [footnote omitted].

"The important factors to be noted in respect to the proposals of the committee majority and minority, as amended and as they applied to the adversary elective process, are (1) the consensus on the abolition of the mandated convention method of nomination, (2) the use of unqualified term 'primary election,' the effect of which would permit nonpartisan as well as partisan primaries and elections, and (3) the introduction of the concept of nomination by petition." The Supreme Court invites a review of §7-61 of The Election Code (III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 46, §7-61) as it applies to judicial candidates.

Committee on Rules of Evidence

The 1977 Administrative Office Report, at page 29, reported that the Supreme Court Committee on Rules of Evidence had completed its work and submitted a proposed code of evidence to the Supreme Court, on July 18, 1977. Thereafter, the proposed code was made available to the various bar associations and an opportunity for comment thereon was allowed. During 1978, comments were received from a number of organizations and individuals. These comments were then studied by the Court which, on January 22, 1979, announced that it would not adopt a code of evidence at this time.

Reporter of Decisions

Since January 1, 1976 the reporter of decisions of the Supreme and Appellate Courts has been Stephen D. Porter. Located in Bloomington, the reporter of decisions is responsible for publication of the official reports of Supreme and Appellate Court opinions.

Supreme Court Marshal

Since February 8, 1976, the Supreme Court's Marshal has been Mr. Louie F. Dean. Mr. Dean is a former special agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The Marshal attends each term of the Court and performs such other duties, at the direction of the Court, which are usually performed by the county sheriff for the Circuit Courts.

Supreme Court Rules Committee

The Supreme Court Rules Committee, during 1979, consisted of the following: Prof. Jo Desha Lucas, chairman, Jason E. Bellows, Esq., (deceased), Murray R. Conzelman, Esq., Richard T. Franch, Esq., Hon. Allen Hartman, Hon. Harold L. Jensen, Watts C. Johnson, Esq., Sidney Z. Karasik, Esq., Hon. Richard Mills, Willis P. Ryan, Esq., Peter M. Sfikas, Esq., Robert L. Stern, Esq., Hon. John E. Sype, Leo K. Wykell, Esq. (deceased), and Hon. Thomas J. Moran, Liaison.

The Rules Committee met six times, in 1979.

Beginning with the October meeting, the committee abandoned its tradition of meeting in the law offices of members and began to meet in the Supreme Court Conference Room on the 30th floor of the Richard J. Daley Center in Chicago. All meetings will hereafter be held in that Conference Room. The committee reviewed and recommended adoption by the Supreme Court of a series of amendments to the rules governing procedures in the reviewing courts. Those draft rules were prepared by the Administrative Committee of the Appellate Court and forwarded by the Supreme Court to the rules committee for its consideration. A series of amendments revising the organization and operation of the reviewing courts were adopted by the Supreme Court on July 30th, effective October 15, 1979. Included in those changes were the addition of rule 24, amendments to rules 22, 291, 302, 303, 306, 307, 308, 309, 315, 316, 317, 321, 323, 324, 327, 330, 331, 341, 342, 344, 361, 606, 607, 608, and 612 and repeal of rules 322 and 328.

The committee considered a proposal that the Supreme Court adopt a rule requiring the trial court to set or approve the fees to be paid to treating physicians for testifying at trial. It was generally agreed that the only fee a treating physician is entitled to as a witness is the fee provided for in III. Rev. Stat., ch. 53, par. 65. However, because it is common for the attorney calling a treating physician to reimburse that physician in an amount which would make him whole for the time he loses coming to testify, and because some treating physicians are—according to some sources—charging more than is reasonable for testifying, it was thought that limiting the fee payable to a treating physician would be beneficial to litigants and the Bar. The committee declined to make such a recommendation to the Supreme Court suggesting instead that such matters should be resolved by agreement between the local Bar and the local medical society.

A subcommittee reviewed all rules relating to civil discovery and solicited from the Bar recommendations for changes in those rules. Several recommendations are still under consideration at this time.

The committee considered a proposal which would allow the Appellate Court to review trial court orders quashing a grand jury subpoena. After extensive discussion it was agreed that the Supreme Court's power to fashion extraordinary remedies, including the power to issue supervisory orders, was all the review that would be necessary to prevent any serious harm from trial court orders quashing grand jury subpoenas. Any right to have the Appellate Court review such orders would unnecessarily tie up criminal investigations.

The committee approved a recommendation to the Supreme Court that, in cases involving indigent defendents and in other cases in which the county or State government will be responsible for the payment of the costs on appeal, the parties should be required to use the least costly method of reproducing briefs and other documents on review. Whenever the public is going to pay for reproducing documents to be filed with reviewing courts, they should be reproduced by the least expensive, legible method.

The committee recommended to the Supreme Court that rule 361 (b) (2) be amended to provide that objections to motions should be filed "within four days" (rather than within two days) "excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays" after personal service of the motion or "within seven days" (rather than four days) "excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays" after mailing the motion, if service is by mail, or within such further time as the court or judge thereof may allow. One of the reasons for this recommendation was the continuing deterioration of mail service which makes the timely receipt of a motion served by mail problematical.

The committee recommended to the Supreme Court the adoption of a new subparagraph (j) of rule 305 which would read as follows:

"(j) Land Trust Bond. The filing of a bond by a beneficiary under a land trust where the land trust is a party shall be considered filing of a bond for purposes of this rule."

The Court adopted this change on September 20, 1979, effective October 15, 1979.

At the request of the Supreme Court, the committee considered the built-in delays in processing appeals. Justice Moran pointed out that, without any extensions of time, our present rules allow 9-1/2 months to pass (after final judgment) before an appellate panel may hear oral arguments in a case on appeal. Then, without any extension of time, a litigant who files a petition for leave to appeal with the Supreme Court will normally wait another 4-2/3 months before a case may be heard by the Supreme Court. A subcommittee considered this problem and the committee recommended to the Supreme Court that rule 315(b) be amended to reduce from 56 days to 35 days the time within which the petition for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court must be filed, if no petition for rehearing is filed. The committee also recommended that the time within which petitions for rehearing must be filed under rule 367(a) be reduced from 21 days to 14 days.

The committee recommended to the Supreme Court that all documents filed in all courts of this state be required to be 8-1/2" by 11" with the understanding that any circuit which has printed forms which exceed that size will be allowed to continue to use those forms until their current supplies are exhausted.

The committee recommended to the Supreme Court, and the Supreme Court, effective November 15, 1979, approved an amendment to rule 553(e) to authorize State Police officers, enforcement officers of the State Department of Conservation, sheriff or sheriffs' deputies to accept cash bail in sealed envelopes at the scene of a minor offense. This rule change had been recommended by the Conference of Chief Circuit Judges, and a letter from Governor James R. Thompson to the Chief Justice urging that such an amendment be adopted resulted in the committee expediting consideration of the matter.

At the November Term, 1979, the Supreme Court appointed two new members to the rules committee: Hon. Allen Hartman, Justice, First Appellate District and Murray Conzelman, Esq., Waukegan.

During the course of the year, the committee considered various recommendations for rule changes proposed by the Judicial Conference Study Committee on Bail Procedures. A subcommittee report has been prepared for presentation at the first meeting in 1980.

A subcommittee worked during the year on proposals for a Supreme Court rule concerning costs in the reviewing courts.

The committee recommended the adoption of new rules 108, 109 and 110 which contain the format of notice to parties, as required by 1979 amendments to Section 6-10a of the Probate Act. The Supreme Court adopted these recommended rule changes effective March 1, 1980.

Recall of Retired Judges

The Illinois Constitution, Art. VI, §15(a) provides, in part:"...Any retired judge or Associate Judge, with his consent, may be assigned by the Supreme Court to judicial service for which he shall receive the applicable compensation in lieu of retirement benefits. A retired Associate Judge may be assigned only as an Associate Judge."

During 1979, the following retired judges were assigned to judicial service:

Appellate Court

Mayer Goldberg	First District
Iswas E. Davia	(all year) Second District
James E. Boyle	(through March 31, 1979)
John T. Reardon*	Fourth District

Supreme Court Committee On Professional Responsibility

In 1978, the Supreme Court appointed the Committee on Professional Responsibility. The membership of the committee is as follows: Justin A. Stanley, Chairman; Chester L. Blair; Robert L. Broderick; Murray R. Conzelman; Louis G. Davidson; Etha B. Fox; Donald H. Funk; Hon. James D. Heiple; Donald B. Hilliker; R. Thomas Howell; David S. Ruder; and George Vernon, reporter.

In December 1978, the committee's report was transmitted to the Supreme Court. During 1979, comments, on the proposed code of professional responsibility, were solicited and received from bar associations and interested attorneys. The comments were summarized and presented to the Supreme Court which is studying the proposed code and comments. It is anticipated that the Court will adopt the proposed code, with some changes, in mid 1980.

Committee To Study Supreme Court Rules 61 through 71

Effective September 10, 1979, the Supreme Court established the committee to Study Supreme Court Rules 61 through 71. The Court directed the committee to make recommendations for the modification of the rules governing judicial conduct, as may appear appropriate. The committee membership is as follows: Appellate Judge John J. Stamos (1st Dist.) and Appellate Judge John M. Karns, Jr. (5th Dist.), Co-chairmen; Circuit Judge Walter P. Dahl (Cook County); Circuit Judge John F. Hechinger (Cook County); Circuit Judge John A. Kruase (16th Circuit); Circuit Judge Irving R. Norman (Cook County); Circuit Judge Wayne C. Townley, Jr. (11th Circuit); Associate Judge Rosemary Duschene La Porta (Cook County); and Associate Judge Frederick P. Patton (14th Circuit).

The Administrative Office serves as secretary to this committee.

The Appellate Court

Jurisdiction

The Appellate Court is the intermediate court of review in the Illinois judicial system. Appeals from final judgments of a Circuit Court may be taken as a matter of right to the Appellate Court, except in cases appealable directly to the Supreme Court. There is no appeal from a judgment of acquittal in a criminal case. The Appellate Court may exercise original jurisdiction when necessary to the complete determination of any case on review, and it may also review administrative actions, as may be provided by law, (Art. VI, Sec. 6). Pursuant to the constitutional provision concerning review of administrative actions, the legislature has enacted two such statutes: (1) the Environmental Protection Act, III. Rev. Stat., ch. 111-1/2, § 1041, effective July 1, 1970, provides that "final orders or determinations" of the Pollution Control Board may be appealed directly to the Appellate Court; and (2) the Election Code, Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 46, § 9-22, effective October 1, 1974, provides that "judgments" of the State Board of Elections concerning disclosure of campaign contributions and expenditures may be appealed directly to the Appellate Court.

In general, Articles III and VI of the Supreme Court Rules govern the mechanics of appellate procedure in civil and criminal cases. Of particular note, is Rule 335 which controls direct appeals from administrative actions to the Appellate Court.

It is interesting to observe that Illinois is one of a few states that provides for appeal as a matter of constitutional right in the intermediate court of review. Furthermore, the Constitution in Article VI. Section 16 directs that the Supreme Court implement the right of appeal by promulgating rules "for expeditious and inexpensive appeals" to the Supreme and Appellate Courts. Thus, it may be fairly stated that an aggrieved litigant, who disagrees with the decision of the Circuit Court, can appeal the judgment to the Appellate Court. This right of appeal applies equally to the defendant who is adjudged guilty of violating a traffic ordinance, as well as to the party who has lost a $1,000,000 personal injury lawsuit. In addition, a litigant has a right to appeal from a decision of the Appellate Court to the Supreme Court if the Appellate Court issues a certificate of importance or a question arises under the Federal or State Constitution for the first time as a result of the action of the Appellate Court.

Organization

The Constitution (there are only a handful of states which constitutionally provide for an intermediate appellate court), Art. VI, Sec. 5, provides: (1) the number of Appellate Judges to be selected from each judicial district shall be provided by law; (2) the Supreme Court shall prescribe by rule the number of appellate divisions in each judicial district; (3) each appellate division shall have at least three judges; (4) assignments of judges to divisions shall be made by the Supreme Court; (5) a majority of a division constitutes a quorum and the concurrence of a majority of the division is necessary for a decision; (6) there shall be at least one division in each judicial district; and (7) each division shall sit at times and places prescribed by rules of the Supreme Court. Appellate Court judges, like Supreme Court judges, are elected for 10 year terms. (Art. VI, Sec. 10).

The General Assembly has provided for the election of 18 Appellate Judges from the First District and 4 from each of the other four districts. The fourth judgeship in each of the four downstate appellate districts was established effective October 1, 1973 (III. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, § 25). These new judgeships were filled at the November, 1974 general election.

Pursuant to Section 5 of Article VI, the Supreme Court has adopted Rule 22 which establishes the organization of the Appellate Court. The rule (as amended effective October 15, 1979) provides as follows:

"Rule 22. Appellate Court Organization

(a) Divisions—Appellate Districts. Each district of the Appellate Court shall consist of one division unless the Supreme Court provides otherwise by order. The First District shall sit in the city of Chicago. The Second District shall sit in the city of Elgin. The Third District shall sit in the city of Ottawa. The Fourth District shall sit in the city of Springfield. The Fifth District shall sit in the city of Mount Vernon. With the approval of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, a division may sit at any place in the State. The Appellate Court in each district shall be in session throughout the year, and each division shall sit periodically as its judicial business requires. Each division shall sit in panels of three judges as hereinafter provided.

(b) Assignment to Divisions—Designation of Panels. The Supreme Court shall assign judges to the various divisions. The presiding judge of a division shall designate judges serving in that division to sit in panels of three. Such a three-judge panel shall constitute the division for purposes of rendering a decision in a case. The Executive Committee of the First District, upon request of a division of that district, may designate any Appellate Court judge of that district to sit in the place of a judge of the requesting division for such case or cases as may be designated in the request.

(c) Decisions. Three judges must participate in the decision of every case and the concurrence of two shall be necessary to a decision. Motions of course may be decided by one judge.

(d) Divisions—Presiding Judge. The judges of each division shall select one of their number to serve as presiding judge of that division for a term of one year.

(e) Executive Committee of the Appellate Court of Illinois. The presiding judges of the Second, Third, Fourth, and Fifth Districts and the members of the Executive Committee of the First District shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Appellate Court of Illinois. Meetings of the Executive Committee may be called by any three of its members, and meetings of the Appellate Court may be called by the Executive Committee.

(f) Executive Committee of the Appellate Court in the First Appellate District. There shall be an Executive Committee of the First District composed of one member of each division, which committee shall exercise general administrative authority. The Executive Committee shall select one of its members as chairman."

Caseload Summary

There were 5,651 new filings in 1979 compared with 4,337 in 1978, an increase of 1,314. However, it must be noted that amended Supreme Court Rules 303 and 606, effective October 15, 1979, now require the docketing of a case, in the reviewing court, upon receipt of a copy of the notice of appeal. As a result, the new filing statistics have increased. It is anticipated that, in a number of these cases, the appeal will not actually be pursued beyond the filing of the notice of appeal.

Appellate Court Research Departments

Supreme Court Rule 24, adopted effective October 15, 1979, establishes a research department in each Appellate Court district. The rule provides that each department will be staffed by a director of research and such number of staff attorneys as the Supreme Court may from time to time determine. The research departments shall perform such duties, as may be assigned to them by the Presiding Judge of the district or, in the First District, by the Executive Committee. They are to coordinate their activities, exchange information and publish and maintain a manual of procedures for the research staff. The Supreme Court will assign an assistant to coordinate the activities of the research departments. All research staff attorneys must be graduates of law schools approved by the American Bar Association.

Rule 24 is based on the successful operation of various research projects, in the Appellate Court districts, over the past several years. They are now given official standing, under the rule, and will be included in the Supreme Court's annual appropriation request to the General Assembly.

Appellate Court Administrative Committee

In early 1977 the Supreme Court reconstituted the Appellate Court Administrative Committee for the purpose of studying and recommending methods by which the Appellate Court, in all five districts, might more efficiently dispose of the ever increasing number of appeals. The membership of the committee is as follows: James C. Craven (4th Dist.) chairman, Jay J. Alloy (3rd Dist.), Robert J. Downing (1st Dist.), John M. Karns, Jr., (5th Dist.), Francis S. Lorenz (1st Dist.), Daniel J. McNamara (1st Dist.), Glenn K. Seidenfeld (2nd Dist.), and Thomas J. Moran (Supreme Court) liaison.

The committee has considered various problems in the administration of the Appellate Court and has recommended solutions. Many of those recommendations have been approved by the Supreme Court and implemented.

Appellate Court Clerks

Pursuant to the provision in the 1970 Constitution for the appointment of Appellate Court Clerks (Art. VI, Sec. 18), the Appellate Judges in each appellate district made the following appointments, effective December 2, 1974: First District, Leslie V. Beck; Second District, Loren J. Strotz; Third District, John E. Hall; Fourth District, Robert L. Conn; Fifth District, Walter T. Simmons.

During 1975, the judges of the Third District Appellate Court appointed Joseph Fennessey to replace John E. Hall, effective January 1, 1976.

On February 16, 1977 Gilbert S. Marchman was appointed to replace Leslie V. Beck in the First District.

Effective January 1, 1979, Robert L. Conn retired as Clerk of the Appellate Court, in the Fourth District. The court appointed Thomas R. Appleton to replace him.

Assignments

The Constitution, Art. VI, Sec. 16 gives the Supreme Court the authority to assign Supreme, Appellate and Circuit Judges temporarily to any court and an Associate Judge to any Circuit Court. Also, Art. VI, Sec. 15 gives the Supreme Court the authority to assign a retired judge, with his consent, to judicial service (a retired Associate Judge may only be assigned as an Associate Judge).

During 1979, ten Circuit Judges served in the Appellate Court by assignment. Twenty-seven assignments of Appellate Court Judges, to districts other than their own were made for the purpose of hearing specific cases. In addition, one retired Appellate Court Judge and two retired Circuit Court Judges were assigned to the Appellate Court.

Assignments (other than to hear specific cases) were as follows:

District	ayer Goldberg, retired, 1st (all year) lel R. Jiganti (all year)
Second District - Hon. Ja cuit (th - Hon. W cuit (al - Hon. G Circuit further Court) - Hon. A	ames E. Boyle, 16th Cir- rough March 31, 1979) /illiam R. Nash, 17th Cir-Ibert Scott, 9th Circuit (all year)
	lohn T. Reardon, retired, rcuit (through November 79)

Fifth District

- Hon. A. G. Weber, III, 6th Circuit (January 1 through 31, 1979 and December 1, 1979 until further order or the Supreme Court)

- Hon. Moses W. Harrison, II, 3rd Circuit (September 4, 1979 until further order of the Supreme Court)

- Hon. George W. Kasserman, Jr., 4th Circuit (February 1, 1979 until further order of the Supreme Court)

- Hon. Peyton H. Kunce, 1st Circuit (through September 30, 1979)
- Hon. Dorothy W. Spomer, retired, 1st Circuit (October 15, 1979 until further order of the Supreme Court)

First District Assignment System

In 1978, the Appellate Court, First District, adopted a new computer based system, for the random assignment of cases filed in that district. Upon the filing of the record on appeal, the case number is fed into a computer, through a terminal located in the clerk's office. The computer immediately makes a random assignment of the case to one of the five divisions in the First District. Such a system insures against the possibility of assignments being influenced by human factors.

Circuit Courts

Jurisdiction

The court of general jurisdiction or trial level court, in Illinois, is known as the Circuit Court. It has original jurisdiction of all justiciable matters, except: (1) in matters relating to redistricting of the General Assembly and to the ability of the Governor to serve or resume office; (2) where the Supreme Court exercises its discretionary original jurisdiction in cases relating to revenue, mandamus, prohibition or habeas corpus; and (3) by statute, the review of orders of the Pollution Control Board and certain orders of the State Board of Elections. There are no courts of special or limited jurisdiction in Illinois. (III. Const. Art. VI, Sec. 9; III. Rev. Stat., ch. 111-1/2, § 1041).

Organization

The State is divided into 21 judicial circuits by statute (III. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, § 72.1). Two circuits, Cook County and the 18th Circuit, consist of a single county. The other 19 judicial circuits are composed of two or more contiguous counties as provided by law. Each judicial circuit has but one, unified Circuit Court.

There are two categories of judges in the Circuit Courts: (1) Circuit Judges, and (2) Associate Judges. Both categories of judges have the full constitutional jurisdiction of the Circuit Court, however, pursuant to Art. VI, Section 8, the Supreme Court provides by rule for the matters to be assigned to Associate Judges. Until May 28, 1975 Supreme Court Rule 295 provided that the Chief Judge of a circuit could assign Associate Judges to hear any matters except the trial of criminal cases in which the defendant was charged with an offense punishable by imprisonment for more than one year. Effective May 28, 1975, Rule 295 was amended to provide:

"Upon a showing of need presented to the Supreme Court by the chief judge of a circuit, the Supreme Court may authorize the chief judge to make temporary assignments of individual associate judges to conduct trials of criminal cases in which the defendant is charged with an offense punishable by imprisonment for more than one year."

Circuit Judges are initially elected, either on a circuitwide basis or from the county where they reside (III. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, §§ 72.2; 72.42-1). In the Cook County Circuit, Circuit Judges are elected from the City of Chicago, from the entire county or from the area outside of Chicago (III. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, § 72.42).

Associate Judges are appointed on a merit basis by the Circuit Judges in their respective circuits. Supreme Court Rule 39 establishes the procedure for nominating and appointing attorneys who have applied for the position of Associate Judge.

Circuit Judges are elected for six-year terms and Associate Judges are appointed for four-year terms (Art. VI, Sec. 10). All judges must be licensed attorneys (Art. VI, Sec. 11).

The Circuit Judges in each Circuit select by secret ballot a Chief Judge from their number to serve at their pleasure. Subject to the authority of the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge has geneal administrative authority over his court, including authority to provide for divisions, general or specialized, and for appropriate times and places of holding court (Art. VI, Sec. 7).

Appeals from the Circuit Court are to the Appellate Court or to the Supreme Court, depending upon the nature of the case (Art. VI, Secs. 4 and 5). No judge of the Circuit Court has the power to review the decision of another and there are no trials de novo. Appeals are based on the trial court record, except where the reviewing court may exercise its original jurisdiction as may be necessary for the complete determination of the case on review (Art. VI, Secs. 4 and 5).

Caseload Summary

Including traffic cases, there were 8,021,778 new cases filed, in 1979, compared with 7,583,557 in 1978, an increase of 6%.

For statistical purposes, the cases filed, in the circuit courts, are divided into 20 categories. The following graphic comparison of these categories, for the past five years, reflects the general increase and, specifically, the trend in each category.

*Includes Housing Cases.

*Includes conservation violations & felony preliminary hearings for Cook County.

(County Department, Law Jury)

During 1979 there were 19,763 law jury (over $15,000) cases added (including transfers), as compared with 18,535 in 1978. Dispositions, in 1979, were 19,048 as compared with 15,354 in 1978. The number pending at the end of 1979, 48,698, was an increase of 687 over the 48,011 pending at the end of 1978.

The average delay from filing to verdict, in 523 cases disposed of by verdict during 1979, was 49.7 months, compared with 47.8 months in 1978.

The inventory of pending law jury cases, over $15,000, has been rising steadily from 28,171 at the end of 1973 to 48,698 at the end of 1979. From 1963 through 1973 the number of such cases terminated each month consistently exceeded the number added. In August of 1973, however, that trend reversed. The only months since August 1973 in which the number of law jury cases terminated exceeded the number added were July of 1975, July of 1976, July of 1977, July-August 1978, and May, June, July and August of 1979, months during which the pre-trial program was in operation. This growing inventory is due in part to the fact that more cases have been filed each month, on an average, since August 1973.

LAW JURY CASES-LAW DIVISION

*Includes 4,806 cases transferred to Municipal Department.

(Municipal Department, Law Jury)

At the start of 1979, there were 15,936 ($15,000 and under) law jury cases pending in the municipal department, as compared with 16,865 in 1978. There were 15,079 cases added during 1979, compared with 12,010 in 1978. Terminations were 14,323 in 1979, compared with 12,939 in 1978. The inventory pending, at the end of 1979, 16,682, was 746 cases higher than the 15,936 pending at the beginning.

(Chancery)

At the start of 1979, there were 6,040 chancery cases pending in the chancery division, compared with 5,998 in 1978. There were 9,190 cases added during 1979, compared with 9,111 in 1978. Terminations were 9,903 in 1979, compared with 9,069 in 1978. The inventory pending, at the end of 1979, 5,108, was 932 cases lower that the 6,040 pending at the beginning.

(Domestic Relations)

At the start of 1979, there were 22,175 cases pending in the domestic relations division, compared with 18,050 in 1978. There were 30,955 cases added during 1979, compared with 32,679 in 1978. Terminations were 36,335, in 1979, compared with 28,554 in 1978. The inventory pending, at the end of 1979, 16,795, was 5,380 cases lower than the 22,175 pending at the beginning.

(County)

At the start of 1979, there were 32,965 cases pending in the county division, compared with 35,642 in 1978. There were 21,226 cases added during 1979, compared with 38,081 in 1978. Terminations were 28,923, in 1979, compared with 40,758 in 1978. The inventory pending, at the end of 1979, 25,268, was 7,697 cases lower than the 32,965 pending at the beginning.

(Probate)

Pending at start and pending at end figures are not presently available, from the probate division. However, 8,934 cases were added during 1979, compared with 9,780 in 1978, and 14,579 cases were terminated, in 1979, compared with 7,934 in 1978.

(Juvenile)

At the start of 1979, there were 7,189 cases pending in the juvenile division, compared with 5,513 in 1978. There were 19,529 cases added during 1979, compared with 18,384 in 1978. Terminations were 17,765 in 1979, compared with 16,708 in 1978. The inventory pending, at the end of 1979, 8,953, was 1,764 cases higher than the 7,189 pending at the beginning.

(Criminal)

At the start of 1979, there were 5,872 cases pending in the criminal division, compared with 6,233 in 1978. There were 12,043 cases added during 1979, compared with 10,113 in 1978. Terminations were 11,042, in 1979, compared with 10,475 in 1978. The inventory pending, at the end of 1979, 5,545, was 327 cases lower than the 5,872 pending at the beginning.

In 1975, the municipal districts began to handle felony cases. At the start of 1979, there were 1,000 felony cases, commenced by information, pending in the municipal districts, compared with 722 in 1978. There were 6,292 such cases added during 1979, compared with 5,691 in 1978. Terminations were 6,352 in 1979, compared with 5,413 in 1978. The inventory pending, at the end of 1979, 960, was 40 cases lower than the 1,000 pending at the beginning.

(Municipal)

Municipal department law jury cases ($15,000 and under) and felony cases commenced by information are discussed above. However, those figures are also included here.

At the start of 1979, there were 219,016 cases pending in the municipal department, compared with 213,097 in 1978. There were 2,277,340 cases (excluding 1st municipal district "hang on ticket" cases) added during 1979, compared with 2,304,263 in 1978.

Terminations were 2,160,103, in 1979, compared with 2,184,332 in 1978. The inventory pending at the end of 1979, 310,633, was 91,617 cases higher than the 219,016 pending at the beginning.

(Totals)

At the start of 1979, there was a total of 357,779 cases pending in the Circuit Court of Cook County (excluding traffic) compared with 345,672 in 1978. There were 2,426,276 cases added during 1979 (excluding 1st municipal district "hang on ticket" cases), compared with 2,466,246 in 1978. Terminations were 2,322,992 in 1979, compared with 2,338,370 in 1978. The inventory pending, at the end of 1979, 460,701, was 102,922 cases higher than the 357,779 pending at the beginning.

Criminal Division

The annual report, for the past several years, has reviewed the progress being made by the Criminal Division, Circuit Court of Cook County, in dealing with increasing filings of felony cases.

At the close of 1977, the pending inventory of untried felony cases, in the Criminal Division, was 6,233. At the close of 1978, the pending inventory stood at 5,872, a reduction of 361 (6%) over 1977. At the end of 1979, the pending inventory was 5,545, a reduction of 327 (6%) over 1978.

One factor contributing to the reduction of the pending inventory, in the Criminal Division, is the trial of felony cases in the five suburban, municipal districts, initiated in 1975 and expanded in subsequent years. However, terminations, in the Criminal Division have increased as well. In his continuing effort to expedite the disposition of felony cases, the Presiding Judge of the Criminal Division, with the assistance of the other judges, is developing proposed Circuit Court rules which would: (1) set arraignment for within three weeks after the preliminary hearing; (2) require official court reporters to submit preliminary hearing and Grand Jury transcripts to the Presiding Judge one business day before the date of arraignment; (3) require the filing of discovery motions on the date of arraignment; (4) set definite time limits for discovery and pre-trial motions; (5) establish pretrial and ready status for pending cases; (6) require trial judges to report their trial or evidentiary hearing status to the Presiding Judge on a daily basis; and (7) provide for daily updating of the court calendar by the clerk.

It is anticipated that these proposed rules will be adopted in early 1980.

Assignments

During 1979, the Administrative Director, on behalf of the Supreme Court, assigned 123 Circuit Judges and 99 Associate Judges, temporarily, to the Circuit Court of Cook County for a total of 453 judge weeks and 4 days.

In the downstate circuits, the Director assigned 47 Circuit Judges and 14 Associate Judges, temporarily, to circuits other than their own, for a total of 25 weeks and 2 days.

In addition, 2 retired Circuit Judges were recalled and assigned to judicial service in the 14th and 19th circuits for a total of 12-1/2 months of service.

Rule 295 Assignments

Art. VI, § 8 of the Constitution of 1970 provides for the establishment of the office of Associate Judge. Among other things, § 8 states:

"The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for matters to be assigned to Associate Judges."

Pursuant to this provision, the Supreme Court provided, in Rule 295, that Associate Judges could be assigned to hear any matter except the trial of criminal cases punishable by imprisonment for more than one year. On May 28, 1975, Rule 295 was amended to provide that, upon a showing of need presented to the Supreme Court by the Chief Judge of a Circuit, the Court could authorize the Chief Judge to make temporary assignments of individual Associate Judges to conduct such trials.

The number of Associate Judges so authorized and their respective circuits, during 1979, are set forth below. In some instances the same Associate Judge was assigned more than once.

Cook County	-	100 Associate Judges (each assigned

Age of Pending Cases Reports

In early 1979 the Supreme Court, through the Administrative Office, instituted an age of pending cases reporting procedure.

Effective June 30, 1979, the Chief Circuit Judges, individual trial judges and the circuit clerks are required to submit the following reports, semi-annually:

Chief Judges- Summary age of pending cases report for each county, which includes: (1) number of untried felony cases pending; (2) number of untried felony cases more than 180 days old (over 5 years old in Cook County; (3) steps taken or to be taken to insure the prompt disposition of such cases; (4) number of cases dismissed under the "speedy trial statute," III. Rev. Stat., ch. 38, §103-5; (5) number of untried law jury cases (over $15,000) pending; (6) number of untried law jury cases (over $15,000) more than 2 years old (over 7 years old in Cook County); (7) a report on any category of cases in which there is unusual delay noted; and (8) number of complaints from attorneys or citizens concerning delay in processing cases.

Trial Judges- (1) Individual reports on untried felony cases pending over 180 days (over 5 years old in Cook County); and (2) Individual reports on untried law jury cases (over $15,000) pending over 2 years (over 7 years old in Cook County).

Clerks- Composite age of pending cases report for the following categories:

Law Jury (over $15,000) Law Jury ($15,000 and under) Chancery Miscellaneous Remedy Eminent Domain Tax Municipal Corporations Mental Health Divorce Family Juvenile Felony Misdemeanor Small Claims Probate

The reports filed for the period January 1 through June 30, 1979 revealed a degree of confusion, on the part of the clerks, as to what is a "pending" case. For example, felony cases in which a bond forfeiture and warrant had been entered were erroneously counted as pending for purposes of this report. The Administrative Office has advised the Chief Judges and clerks in this regard, and it is anticipated that future age of pending cases reports will more accurately reflect the status and age of cases in the individual counties and circuits.

From all indications, it can be stated that the new reporting requirements are having a significant effect upon speeding up the disposition of older cases.

Judicial Elections

The Illinois Constitution, Article VI, Section 12 (a) provides:

"(a) Supreme, Appellate and Circuit Judges shall be nominated at primary elections or by petition. Judges shall be elected at general or judicial elections as the General Assembly shall provide by law. A person eligible for the office of Judge may cause his name to appear on the ballot as a candidate for Judge at the primary and at the general or judicial elections by submitting petitions. The General Assembly shall prescribe by law the requirements for petitions."

There were no judicial elections in 1979. However, one of the judicial contests in 1978 raised a significant issue on the manner of filling a vacancy in nomination for a judicial office and resulted in a contest which was resolved in 1979. One of the political parties had failed to nominate a candidate for the office of resident Circuit Judge, at the primary election. Thereafter, the party's managing committee filled the vacancy by nominating a candidate pursuant to the provisions of §7-61 of The Election Code (III. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 46, §7-61). It was argued that §7-61 does not apply to filling vacancies in nomination for judicial office, in view of the expressed intention of the Sixth Constitutional Convention and the language of the Constitution of 1970, Art. VI, §12(a), that "Supreme, Appellate and Circuit Judges shall be nominated at primary elections or by petition. . . . " The Supreme Court did not decide this question but ruled instead that the challenge was estopped by the doctrine of laches. Thurston v. State Board of Elections et al., 76 III. 2d 385, 392 N.E.2d 1349 (1979).

Conference of Chief Circuit Judges

The 21 Chief Circuit Judges meet regularly as the Conference of Chief Circuit Judges, a committee of the Supreme Court. The purpose of this conference is to consider problems relating to the administration of the Circuit Courts and such other matters as may from time to time be referred to it by the Supreme Court (Supreme Court Rule 42).

Subject only to the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge of each judicial circuit has the power and responsibility to administer his circuit. As the day-to-day manager of the Circuit Court, the Chief Judge is responsible for operating it in such a manner that the ends of justice at the trial court level are fully satisfied. Regular meetings of the Chief Judges in conference give each Chief Judge an opportunity to discuss judicial administration with his fellow Chief Judges.

At the close of 1979, the twenty-one Chief Circuit Judges were: James E. Bales, 15th, Chairman of the Conference; Robert H. Chase, 1st; Robert W. Witmer, 2nd; Horace L. Calvo, 3rd; Bill J. Slater, 4th; Ralph S. Pearman, 5th; Rodney A. Scott, 6th; Simon Friedman, 7th; Richard F. Scholz, 8th; U.S. Collins, 9th; Richard E. Eagleton, 10th; John T. McCullough, 11th; Michael Orenic, 12th; Thomas R. Flood, 13th; Paul E. Rink, 14th; Paul W. Schnake, 16th; Robert C. Gill, 17th; William V. Hopf, 18th; John J. Kaufman, 19th; Joseph F. Cunningham, 20th; and Harry G. Comerford, Cook County.

During 1979, the following items were the subject of discussion or action by the Conference of Chief Circuit Judges:

(February)

Reviewed the newly developed standards for probation personnel.

Considered the matter of opening adoption files for inspection by adults who were adopted.

Considered the matter of providing representation to indigent respondents in involuntary hospitalization proceedings and the need for funding to pay for medical examinations under section 3-804 of the Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Code.

Adopted a motion to recommend that the Juvenile Court Act be amended to provide for the holding of detention hearings, in all cases, within 48 hours of the juvenile having been taken into custody.

Considered the responsibility of the courts and grand juries to inspect county jails.

Adopted a motion to recommend to the Supreme Court that it include in its annual budget funds for the operating expenses of the office of Chief Circuit Judge.

Considered the interpretation of the nature of the allegations in pro se petitions.

Considered the matter of adequate publication in dissolution of marriage cases.

Considered the problem of employers who require employees serving on jury duty to work a night shift.

(March)

Began consideration of the proper distribution of fines for traffic violations committed on township roads.

Considered the feasibility of requiring performance bonds from official court reporters.

Considered whether an indigent defendant has a right to a copy of the report of proceedings, in addition to the copy provided to his attorney.

Considered the propriety of ordering reimbursement, from a defendant's bail deposit, for the cost of court appointed counsel.

Considered the question of whether adult adoptees should have the right to obtain information concerning their natural heritage.

Considered the propriety of impounding court records, upon a motion to expunge arrest information.

Considered the ethical problem involved where the attorneys attempt to talk to prospective jurors about a pending case, before they have been summoned as jurors.

Considered various procedures for handling electronic eavesdropping petitions. Adopted a motion to recommend, to the General Assembly, that it repeal III. Rev. Stat., ch. 75, pars. 26, 27 and 28, to relieve judges and grand juries of the responsibility of supervising jail conditions.

Adopted a motion to recommend, to the General Assembly, that it repeal the various attachment statutes.

Considered the need for procedures to govern the handling of cases, after a motion for substitution of judge has been granted.

Adopted a motion to recommend that the General Assembly amend III. Rev. Stat., ch. 95-1/2, par. 16-105(a) to delete the requirement that fines collected, for traffic offenses committed in the unincorporated portion of a township, be forwarded to the township treasurer.

Adopted a motion to advise State Police that ch. 95-1/2, par. 6-301 is a "must appear" case and should be treated as such.

Considered the problem of releasing, from custody, motorists who are arrested at a time when a judge is not available and when the motorist does not have the necessary cash to post bail.

Adopted a motion to recommend that the General Assembly not pass H.B. 434 which would allow the use of credit cards and personal checks to post bail in traffic cases.

Considered the desirability of relieving judges of non-judicial, statutory functions.

Considered various methods by which conflicts of interest, in cases where the public defender is appointed, might be resolved.

Considered the feasibility of automatic enforcement of support, through the clerks' offices.

Considered various procedures for the enforcement of Department of Revenue tax liens.

(September)

Considered whether the present statutes permit probation officers to carry weapons.

Considered whether probation records may be destroyed after they have been kept for a certain number of years.

Considered the failure of the General Assembly to appropriate sufficient funds to pay the fees of court appointed medical experts and guardians ad litem, under P.A. 80-1415, effective January 1, 1979.

Considered the absence of provisions, in the law, for the representation of indigent juveniles, on appeal.

Considered the problem of what cases should be considered as "pending," for purposes of the age of pending cases reports. It was concluded that where there is a bail forfeiture and an outstanding warrant, the case should not be considered as pending.

Considered the legal basis for an order of "stricken with leave to reinstate."

Considered the legality of a prisoner being released to another jurisdiction, without extradition proceedings.

(October)

Appointed a sub-committee to study a request, by the Department of Corrections, for approval of a "procedures agreement" for the administration of periodic imprisonment in State facilities.

Considered whether the Circuit Court has authority to order the construction or closing of a county jail.

Considered methods by which the Circuit Court might determine the appropriate number of authorized coroner's deputies.

Considered the need for assignment of downstate judges to Cook County and the formula by which each downstate circuit's responsibility is determined.

Considered the burden placed on official court reporters by the amended Supreme Court rules governing appeals, and emphasized the need for reasonable allocation of court reporter time between court and transcribing.

Discussed the progress being made, in various counties, in implementing automatic enforcement of support payments.

(November)

Considered the impact of P.A. 81-339 which provides for vacating judgments upon the filing of a release or satisfaction.

Considered the impact of P.A. 81-1047 which prohibits confession of judgments in consumer transaction cases.

Considered the impact of P.A. 81-1066 which provides that where a motion for substitution of judge is based on cause, the hearing on the motion must be held before a judge not named in the motion.

Discussed various implications of P.A. 81-419 which allows retired judges, upon assignment by the Chief Circuit Judge, to solemnize marriages.

Considered various alternative procedures for trying the issue of contribution among joint tortfeasors, pursuant to P.A. 81-601.

Considered the requirement in III. Rev. Stat., ch. 120, par. 404 that the returns of appraisers, in inheritance tax proceedings, be entered in a book provided by the Treasurer.

Considered P.A. 81-795 which contains amendments to the new disabled adult legislation.

Considered P.A. 81-213 which allows independent administration of decedents' estates under $150,000.

Considered the propriety of entering ex parte judgments in "minor ordinance violation" cases, other than traffic and conservation.

Considered the desirability of circuit clerks being responsible for administering funds belonging to persons sentenced to serve sentences of periodic imprisonment in local facilities.

(December)

Adopted a motion to authrize the Subcommittee on Periodic Imprisonment to enter into negotiations with the Department of Corrections concerning its reported "conditions of certifications for periodic imprisonment."

Adopted a motion to recommend to the Supreme Court that it approve the establishment of a committee to study the office of Chief Circuit Judge.

Adopted a motion to recommend to the Supreme Court that it adopt a proposed rule of attorney conduct which would prohibit attorneys from talking with jurors, until after they are discharged from service.

Adopted a motion to approve the report of the nominating committee recommending Judge Joseph Cunningham and Judge John T. McCullough to be the next Chairman and Vice-chairman, respectively.

Compulsory Retirement of Judges

III. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, §23.71 et seq. provides for compulsory retirement of judges upon the attainment of age 70.

The full text of the compulsory retirement statute is as follows:

"23.71 Automatic retirement—Conclusion of pending matters. §1. A judge is automatically retired on the first Monday of December next after the general election at which members of the General Assembly are elected immediately following the attainment of age 70 of such judge. Such judge shall conclude all matters pending before him unless the Supreme Court makes other provisions for the disposition of such matters.

23.72 Continuance in office—Conditions—Date of retirement. §2. The provisions of Section 1 of this Act are suspended, however, with respect to any judge in office on the effective date of this Act. Such judge may continue to serve until the occurrence of one of the 3 following dates whichever occurs last: (1) January 1, 1976; or (2) the date upon which such judge completes 18 years of judicial service in courts of record including all such service rendered prior to, on, and after the effective date of this Act; or (3) the date upon which such judge reaches age 70. The provisions of Section 1 of this Act are also suspended as to any judge in office on June 30th, 1973 who cannot fulfill the minimum eligibility requirements under the Judges Retirement System of Illinois, Article 18 of the Illinois Pension Code, on the day of his becoming age 70, but who can do so by remaining in office after age 70 for the balance of his current term.

"Upon reaching the date provided in this Section 2, whichever is appropriate, such judge is retired on the first Monday in December next after the general election for members of the General Assembly occurring immediately after such retirement date except that such judge shall complete all matters pending before him unless the Supreme Court makes other provisions for the disposition of such matters."

On July 11, 1978, in the case of Trafelet et al. v. Thompson, et al., No. 78 C 1036 (U.S. Dist. Ct. N.D. III.), Judge Prentice Marshall upheld the constitutionality of the Compulsory Retirement Act.

On March 16, 1979, the U.S. Court of Appeals (7th Circuit) affirmed the District Court, 594 F. 2d 623 (1979), and the U.S. Supreme Court denied certiorari on October 9, 1979, 100 S. Ct. 219.

The Courts Commission

In prior annual reports to the Supreme Court, particularly the 1975 Annual Report, the history and course of judicial discipline in Illinois were extensively related and will not, therefore, be repeated here. Since July 1, 1971, disciplinary proceedings against judicial officers have been bifurcated: the Judicial Inquiry Board, composed of nine members, which includes four lay-persons and three lawyers appointed by the Governor, and two Circuit Judges appointed by the Supreme Court, conducts investigations against judges, files formal voted complaints against judges with the Courts Commission, and prosecutes the voted complaints before the Courts Commission. The Courts Commission, composed of five judges, is limited to hearing the complaints filed by the Judicial Inquiry Board, to making findings, and to entering dispositive orders of dismissal or of imposition of sanctions. Upon a finding against a respondent-judicial officer, the Courts Commission, after notice and public hearing, may "remove from office, suspend without pay, censure or reprimand a Judge or Associate Judge for willful misconduct in office, persistent failure to perform his duties, or other conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice or that brings the judicial office into disrepute, or ... to suspend, with or without pay, or retire a Judge or Associate Judge who is physically or mentally unable to perform his duties." III. Const. art. VI. §15(e).

The judicial officers who have been appointed as members of the judicial disciplinary entities are, as of December 31, 1979:

Appointed by the Supreme Court to the Judicial Inquiry Board:

Circuit Judge Philip A. Fleischman, Cook County Circuit Judge Lloyd A. Van Deusen, Nineteenth Judicial Circuit

Appointed by the Supreme Court to the Courts Commission:

*Appellate Court Judge Francis S. Lorenz, First

Judicial District

Appellate Court Judge Charles E. Jones, Fifth Judicial District (alternate)

Appellate Court Judge Thomas A. McGloon, First Judicial District (alternate)

*Present members of the Courts Commission.

Pursuant to rule of the Commission, the Administrative Director, Roy O. Gulley, is the Commission secretary.

During 1979, two formal complaints were filed by the Judicial Inquiry Board with the Courts Commission; two complaints filed in 1978 were adjudicated in 1979; and the two complaints filed in 1979 were carried over into 1980. The Commission, upon a finding against a respondent-judge and after a public hearing, may discipline the judge by removal from office, suspension with or without pay, retirement, censure or reprimand.

Before reciting the activities of the Courts Commission for 1979, several interesting matters should be mentioned. First, as noted in the 1978 Annual Report, the Supreme Court in People ex rel. Judicial Inquiry Board v. Hartel, 72 III. 2d 225, 380 N.E. 2d 801 (1978), in the plurality opinion, ruled that the defendant -Associate Judge (Alfano) who was the subject of a criminal prosecution and of an investigation by the Judicial Inquiry Board, based on the same underlying conduct, could only discover in the criminal prosecution that portion of the Board's confidential investigatory file which the Board alone determines to plainly negate defendant's guilt. Subsequently, in the criminal prosecution the trial court acquitted the defendant because the defendant could not effectively cross-examine the prosecution's witnesses, as defendant did not have access to their prior and possibly, inconsistent statements given to the Board. Under the Hartel rationale, these statements, which may have contradicted the witnesses' testimony, were not discoverable because they did not on their face plainly negate defendant's guilt. The prosecution directly appealed to the Supreme Court and it is anticipated a decision, which could clarify Hartel, will be handed down in 1980. People v. Alfano, S. Ct. Doc. 52471.

Second, the Supreme Court on September 13, 1979 appointed a Committee to Study the Provisions of Supreme Court Rules 61 through 71. The Committee, co-chaired by Appellate Court Judges John J. Stamos and John M. Karns, Jr., consists of nine judicial officers and is charged with making "such recommendations for the modification [of Rules 61-71] as may appear appropriate" (M.R. 2362). The Committee's work directly relates to judicial discipline for the Supreme Court has ruled that only conduct violative of Rules 61-71 may be the subject of a complaint filed by the Board with the Courts Commission. People ex rel. Harrod v. Illinois Courts Commission, 69 III. 2d 445, 372 N.E. 2d 53 (1977).

The 1979 activities of the Illinois Courts Commission were:

(1) Complaint 78-CC-1 charged a certain Associate Judge of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit with conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice or that brings the judicial office into disrepute in that he, while holding court, summarily held a young woman wearing a tee-shirt with the words "Bitch, Bitch, Bitch" printed thereon in contempt of court and sentenced her to three days incarceration. The woman was a courtroom spectator, and the respondent-judge had told her that she could not wear the tee-shirt in court, whereupon she left the courtroom only to return wearing a jacket which covered the words on the tee-shirt. The complaint alleged that the respondent violated Supreme Court Rules 61(c) (1) through 61(c) (5) and 61(c) (18). (After the contempt order. People v. Watts, 66 III. App. 3d 971, 384 N.E. 2d 453 (1978)).

On August 13, 1979, the Commission ruled that, as noted by the Appellate Court in Watts, the law with regard to contempt as it relates to spectators' appropriate courtroom attire is not well defined and respondent's conduct, therefore, cannot be said to violate some established principle of law as required by Harrod; and that the Board did not prove "by clear and convincing evidence, that the respondent's conduct did constitute a gross abuse of judicial power." The Commission then dismissed the complaint.

(2) Complaint 78-CC-2 charged a certain Circuit Judge of the Seventh Judicial Circuit with conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice or that brings the judicial office into disrepute in that he required a certain law firm, which consistently filed motions for substitution of judge or for change of venue in cases assigned to the judge, to personally appear to argue the motions and then deny their motions but on his motion grant the change or substitution. The complaint alleged that the respondent's conduct was a "gross abuse of judicial power" and violated Supreme Court Rules 61(c) (1) through 61(c) (5).

On September 17, 1979, the Commission after reviewing the evidence held that respondent's inquiries into the law firm's reasons for filing the motions were in part prompted by his desire "to correct any problems that might adversely affect court administration in [his] county" and that his inquiries did not constitute "a gross abuse of judicial authority or a failure to abide by or follow established law." The Commission then dismissed the complaint.

(3) Complaint 79-CC-1 alleged that a certain Associate Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County brought the judicial office into disrepute or performed conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice in that he directed and allowed a court clerk to conduct his court call, he acted contrary to determined law by failing and refusing to consider relevant evidence in reaching decisions, he rendered rulings favorable to plaintiffs when defendants were not present and when plaintiffs presented no evidence to prove their claims, he granted judgment for a plaintiff when both parties had settled, and he failed to plainly state the nature of his rulings, thereby misleading the parties. The complaint alleged that the respondent violated Supreme Court Rules 61(c) (1), (4), (5) and (25).

The Commission is expected to set a hearing on the complaint in February, 1980.

(4) Complaint 79-CC-2 charged a Circuit Judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit with conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice or that brings the judicial office into disrepute in that during a criminal trial, the respondent caused two "free lance" reporters, one of whom was sketching a testifying witness, to be ejected from the courtroom, and he ordered the courtroom doors locked. The complaint alleged that the respondent violated Supreme Court Rules 61(c) (1), (3), (4) and (8).

The Commission is expected to set a hearing on the complaint in 1980.

During the period July 1, 1971 through December 31, 1979, the Judicial Inquiry Board had filed 28 formal complaints with the Courts Commission. The dispositions of the complaints by the Commission were as follows:

Respondents removed from office	- 3
Respondents suspended without pay	- 6
Respondents censured	- 3
Respondents reprimanded	- 5
Complaints dismissed	- 8
Commission order expunged by
Supreme Court	- 1
Complaints pending	- 2

In the several annual and supplemental reports of the Judicial Inquiry Board, it is noted that the overwhelming number of complaints received about judges is unmeritorious. The reports further state that each communication complaining about a judge's conduct is carefully examined; however, "relatively few of the communications justify further action by the Board" because persons "who have had a disappointing experience. in the courts or have lost a case...are sometimes inclined to an exaggerated idea of the power of the Board to rectify what they regard as a miscarriage of justice".

Nevertheless, the power of the Board and the application of that power has caused some concern, particularly among the judiciary. That concern has been expressed by Justice Robert C. Underwood in a law review article, 47 Notre Dame Lawyer 247:

"While the creation of the Judicial Inquiry Board was opposed by the members of the Supreme Court as unnecessary, and as creating a potential threat to the independence of the judicial branch of government, I am sure that the members to be appointed will be selected with care and will be sincere, conscientious individuals, aware of the seriousness of their responsibilities. It is their constitutional obligation to maintain the confidentiality of all complaints until such time as a formal charge, if warranted, is filed against a judge. A working knowledge of the judicial process will be imperative for the Board members if they are to distinguish between improper judicial conduct as opposed to mere dissatisfaction with a judicial ruling or opinion. While a potential threat to judicial independence has been created, I trust that will never become a reality. That independence can, in fact, be enhanced if the Board performs its duties in a responsible, impartial and nonsensational manner."

What the future holds for the judges of Illinois relating to the regulation of the judiciary is difficult to perceive. The overwhelming majority of judicial officers are men and women of high integrity, honesty, virtue and self-discipline for hard work and devotion to their judicial duties. Judges are human beings with the same virtues and failings of other professional people; but because they are public servants, they are rightly held to a high degree of trust and confidence.

The Judicial Conference

The Illinois Constitution provides, in Section 17 of Article VI, that there shall be "an annual judicial conference to consider the work of the courts and to suggest improvements in the administration of justice." Supreme Court Rule 41 implements Section 17 by establishing membership in the Conference, creating an executive committee to assist the Court in conducting the Conference, and appointing the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts as secretary of the Conference. The text of the rule follows:

"Rule 41. (a) Duties. There shall be a Judicial Conference to consider the business and the problems pertaining to the administration of justice in this State, and to make recommendations for its improvement.

(b) Membership. The judges of the Supreme Court, the judges of the Appellate Court, and the judges of the circuit courts shall be members of the conference.

(c) Executive Committee. The Supreme Court shall appoint an executive committee to assist it in conducting the Judicial Conference.

- (1) The committee shall consist of six judges from Cook County, the First Judicial District, and six judges from the other judicial districts outside Cook County. A designated Justice of the Supreme Court shall be an ex officio member of the committee. Members shall be appointed for a term of three years.
- (2) Each year the Supreme Court shall designate one of the members of the committee to act as chairman.
- (3) The committee shall meet at such time and such place as may be necessary, or at the call of the Supreme Court.
- (4) The committee shall recommend to the Supreme Court the appointment of such other committees as are necessary to further the objectives of the conference.
- (5) At least 60 days prior to the date on which the Judicial Conference is to be held the committee shall submit to the Supreme Court a suggested agenda for the annual meeting.

(d) Meetings of Conference. The conference shall meet at least once each year at a place and on a date to be designated by the Supreme Court.

(e) Secretary. The Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts shall be secretary of the conference." The Judicial Conference membership includes the Supreme Court Justices, Appellate Court Judges and all Circuit Court Judges. The Supreme Court appoints the six judges from Cook County and six judges from outside Cook County to serve three year terms on the Executive Committee.

As of December 31, 1979 the Executive Committee consisted of:

Hon. William C. Calvin, Chairman
Hon. Harry G. Comerford, Vice-chairman
Hon. Louis B. Garippo
Hon. Mayer Goldberg
Hon. Mel R. Jiganti
Hon. George W. Kasserman, Jr.
Hon. John A. Krause
Hon. Harry D. Strouse, Jr.
Hon. Vincent W. Tondryk
Hon. Kenneth R. Wendt
Hon. Frank X. Yackley
Hon. Ivan L. Yontz
Hon. Robert C. Underwood, Liaison

The Executive Committee meets monthly to plan and supervise the organization of the annual meeting of the Conference, annual Associate Judge Seminar, regional seminars and the activities of the various Judicial Conference study committees. In addition, the Executive Committee considers recommendations relating to the improvement of the administration of justice which arise as a result of the Conference, seminars and committee activities. Those recommendations, if approved, are submitted to the Supreme Court for its consideration.

In 1979, the Executive Committee activities included the following:

- (1) Approved and sponsored the first Appellate Court Seminar in Rockford on June 6-8, 1979.
- (2) Selected the seminar topics of evidence, criminal law, civil law, chancery, and function of the trial judge for presentation at the 1979 annual meeting.
- (3) Appointed a study committee to consider the possibility of codifying the law of contempt in Illinois.
- (4) Reviewed and tendered to the Supreme Court the report of the Committee on Court Services recommending a uniform presentence investigation report form. The proposed form was further recommended to the Conference of Chief Judges for possible adoption.
- (5) Approved the seminar topics of evidence, mental health, and juvenile law for the 1979-80 regional seminar series as recommended by its Subcommittee on Judicial Education.
- (6) Re-convened the Study Committee on Procedures in Quasi-Criminal and Ordinance Violation Cases in response to the letter of the Chief Justice for supplemental research on the proposed civil offense rules.

- (7) Considered and forwarded to the Supreme Court the report of the Study Committee on Court Appointed Fiduciaries. The report supplemented the basic provisions of Rule 61 (11). The Executive Committee, in forwarding the report, suggested the possibility of presenting the study to the Supreme Court Rules Committee.
- (8) Authorized the continued operation of the Study Committee on Bail Procedures, under ILEC grant funding, to serve as a pretrial advisory committee for those circuits interested in instituting the recommendations of its 1978 report.
- (9) Approved the request of the 1980 Associate Judge Seminar Coordinating Committee for a modified format at the March, 1980 program. (A two day schedule and the presentation of non-elective subjects.)
- (10) Approved an analysis of the "struck" jury system as the topic of study for the next year by the Study Committee on Jury Selection and Utilization.
- (11) Recommended to the Supreme Court the authorization of a study project on the office of Chief Circuit Judge, in Illinois.
- (12) Monitored the preparation of uniform rules for juvenile proceedings by the Committee on Juvenile Problems.
- (13) Considered the report of the Study Committee on Jury Selection and Utilization recommending a state-wide study of jury modernization techniques on the circuit or county level.
- (14) Considered the various continuing education programs conducted by the National Judicial College and other organizations for content and benefit to Illinois judges.
- (15) Approved grant assistance funding awards to Illinois judges to attend out-of-state educational programs.
- (16) Determined program content and selected committees for the 1979 Judicial Conference Annual Meeting.

1979 Associate Judge Seminar

The Associate Judge Seminar was presented in Chicago on March 28-30, 1979. The program was planned and presented by the Coordinating Committee which consisted of:

Hon. Robert C. Buckley, Chairman
Hon. Richard P. Goldenhersh, Vice-chairman
Hon. Ronald J. Crane
Hon. Brian L. Crowe
Hon. Rita B. Garman
Hon. John J. Hogan
Hon. Edward H. Marsalek

Hon. James K. Marshall

- Hon. Charles L. Quindry
 - Hon. Jerry S. Rhodes
- Hon. James M. Walton
- Hon. James J. Wimbiscus Hon. Kenneth R. Wendt, Liaison

Two hundred and fifty seven of the 290 Associate Judges in Illinois were present. Justice William G. Clark addressed the dinner session of the seminar.

The program opened with a panel discussion on the subject of the public's view and expectations of the judiciary. The two hour program involved presentations by the following panelists and an open discussion session with the judicial attendants.

Hon. Ronald J. Crane, Moderator

- Janet Otwell, President, League of Women Voters of Illinois
- John P. Clarke, Publisher, Illinois State Journal & Register

Hon. Roy O. Gulley, Administrative Director

- John D. Hayes, General Chairman, CBA Committee on Evaluation of Judicial Candidates
- Bill Kurtis, Newsbroadcaster, WBBM-TV, Chicago

Hon. John P. Shonkwiler, Judge, 6th Circuit

The work of the recently appointed Study Committee on High Volume Courts to more effectively administer high volume courtrooms was described by its chairman. Because Associate Judges are primarily assigned to traffic, misdemeanors, citations, forcible entry, and small claims the study was of special relevance to the seminar attendants.

The continuing education portion of the seminar consisted of the following five elective subjects:

Evidence

Criminal Law

Traffic

Trial Practice

Recent Developments in Civil Law

1979 Judicial Conference

The 26th annual meeting of the Illinois Judicial Conference was held in Chicago on September 5, 6, and 7, 1979. Four hundred and six of the 420 Supreme, Appellate and Circuit Court Judges attended the Wednesday-Friday program.

At the opening session, Professor Norval Morris of the University of Chicago School of Law presented a thought-provoking and innovative approach to handling mental illness matters within the criminal law framework.

Governor James R. Thompson addressed the attendants at the dinner session. The Governor stressed the importance of the courts as the arena for resolving matters of policy and reconciling confusion over contradictory state and federal regulations.

During the course of the program, the thirty Appellate and Circuit Court Judges who had left the Illinois judiciary, in the previous year, were honored. The fifty-one new Appellate and Circuit Court Judges, elected or appointed since September, 1978 were introduced.

Elective educational seminars were offered on the following subjects:

Chancery Evidence Civil Law Criminal Law Role of the Trial Judge

Appellate Court Seminar

On the recommendation of the Subcommittee on Judicial Education and the Executive Committee, the Supreme Court approved the planning and presentation of the first seminar intended solely for the judges of the Appellate Court. The program was conducted in Rockford on June 6-8, 1979. Chief Justice Joseph H. Goldenhersh and Supreme Court Justices Thomas J. Moran, Robert C. Underwood, and Daniel P. Ward participated on the program. Thirty-nine of the fortytwo judges sitting in the Appellate Court were present.

The seminar was intended primarily to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and the discussion of common problems. The topics and discussion leaders were as follows:

Writing Effective Opinions Professor John Warnoch University of Wyoming

Observations on Opinion Writing in Illinois Stephen D. Porter Reporter of Decisions

Remarks: Retired Supreme Court Justice Walter V. Schaefer

Supreme and Appellate Court Concerns Panelists: Justice Thomas J. Moran

Justice Robert C. Underwood Justice Daniel P. Ward

Remarks: Chief Justice Joseph H. Goldenhersh Group Discussion Sessions - Consideration of Problems, Problems, Problems - Issues

Judicial Lawmaking in Illinois Professor Vincent F. Vitullo DePaul University College of Law

1979 Regional Seminars

The Subcommittee on Judicial Education is charged with the responsibility of planning and supervising the presentation of the regional seminar program. As of December 31, 1979 the Subcommittee members were:

Hon. Harry D. Strouse, Chairman Hon. Harry G. Comerford Hon. Richard E. Eagleton Hon. Allen Hartman Hon. John A. Nordberg Hon. George W. Unverzagt

During the 1979 winter-spring sessions, the following 2-1/2 day regional seminars were presented:

(Schedule)

January 11-13, 1979	Tort Litigation
February 8-10, 1979	Tort Litigation	Rockford Holiday Inn, Collinsville
March 1-3, 1979	Sentencing	Holiday Inn, Carbondale

The Administrative Office

Introduction

The Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts (see Appendix B for historical development) is established pursuant to Article VI, Section 16 of the Constitution of 1970, to assist the Chief Justice carry out his duties in exercising the administrative and supervisory authority of the Supreme Court over all the courts.

The functions of the Administrative Office cannot be exhaustively delineated, for the Supreme Court's administrative authority encompasses every aspect of the judicial system. However, these functions can be generally described as including personnel, fiscal management, continuing judicial education, records and statistics, secretariat, liaison with the legislative and executive branches, management of court facilities and equipment, research and planning. Within each of these categories fall the specific functions of the Administrative Office which are reported in greater detail in this report. It is interesting to note that the functions of the Administrative Office, as they have developed since 1959, correspond very closely to those established in the 1974 A.B.A. Standards Relating to Court Organization (Standard 1.41) for state court administrative offices:

"(1) Preparation of standards and procedures for the recruitment, evaluation, promotion, in-service training, and discipline of all personnel in the court system, other than judges and judicial officers.

(2) Financial administration of the system, including budget preparation and administration, accounting and auditing.

(3) Management of the court system's continuing education programs for judges, judicial officers, and non-judicial personnel.

(4) Promulgation and administration of uniform requirements concerning records and information systems and statistical compilations and controls.

(5) Secretariat, including acting as secretary to the judicial council and judicial conference and their committees, arranging meetings of the judiciary, disseminating reports, bulletins, and other official information, and rendering annual and other periodic reports on behalf of the court system.

(6) Liaison for the court system as a whole with the legislature and the chief executive, and with the bar, the news media, and the general public.

(7) Supervision of construction of major physical facilities and establishment of standards and procedures for acquisition of equipment, incidental facilities, and purchased services.

(8) Research for planning for future needs.

(9) Management of the staff of the central administrative office."

The Administrative Office is also responsible for the administration of several programs pursuant to specific Supreme Court rules: (1) temporary licensing of senior law students (Rule 711); (2) impartial medical expert program (Rule 215); (3) teller of elections of Associate Judges (Rule 39); (4) secretary to the Judicial Conference (Rule 41) and Conference of Chief Circuit Judges (Rule 42); (5) custodian of judicial statements of economic interest (Rule 68) and (6) repository of Appellate and Circuit Court rules (Rule 21).

In addition, the Supreme Court has designated the Administrative Office as secretary to the Supreme Court Rules Committee, and the Courts Commission has designated the Administrative Office as secretary in all proceedings before the Commission.

In 1978, a Probation Division was established in the Administrative Office to implement the probation officer salary subsidy and other responsibilities provided for in P.A. 80-1483.

Personnel

The Administrative Office maintains two offices—the headquarters in Springfield and a second office in Chicago.

During 1979, the staff of the Administrative Office totaled thirty-four. In addition to the Director, the staff included: one Deputy Director, four Assistant Directors, one Supervisor V, two Administrative Assistants, one Assistant Supervisor, two statisticians, thirteen Accountants, three Secretaries, one File Clerk and one Messenger. The Probation Division consists of one Supervisor, two Assistant Supervisors and two Secretaries.

Fiscal

The Administrative Office's unified accounting division was established on October 1, 1963. The organization of the accounting division served as the basis for transforming the former fragmented system of accounting for funds expended by the court system into an integrated system accountable for all funds appropriated by the General Assembly to the State judicial system. Upon the establishment of the accounting division, the Supreme Court appointed Jeanne Meeks as supervisor who, with the assistance of her staff, has maintained strict control of the disbursal of appropriated funds. The division is located in the Springfield office.

General Revenue funds appropriated to the Supreme Court which are monitored by the accounting division cover salaries for all judges, appellate law clerks, court reporters, clerks of the Supreme and Appellate Courts and related personnel. In addition, there are appropriations for payment of the operational costs for the Supreme and Appellate Courts, Administrative Office, Judicial Conference, Impartial Medical Program, travel for judges and court reporters, transcription fees, and probation officer salary subsidies.

It is not possible to exhaustively define the many duties of the accounting division, for the accounting procedures of documenting, verifying and summarizing are indeed numerous. The accounting division's primary function is to properly approve, audit, process and record all judicial expenditures drawn on each of the appropriations.

Though the division operates as a unit, its functions can be categorized as budget, payroll, vouchers, insurance, property control, fiscal reports, deposits of funds, and finally, reconciliation of the division's ledgers as opposed to Comptroller printouts.

A brief description of each of the previously mentioned components will identify the accountability of the division.

Some of the rudiments in computing annual budgets are perusing and comparing expenditures over a three year span, incorporating specific needs over and above the ordinary obligatory requirements, and applying the cost of living index wherever necessary. Each new budget is prepared when only three months of the current fiscal year have passed. Expenses incurred in the first month of a new fiscal year are generally not received for processing until the second month. This fact results in the availability of merely two months of expenses as a basis for accumulating supportive data for the preparation of the new budget.

Budget forms represent the anticipated funds which will be needed to operate the judicial system in the new Fiscal Year, Each appropriation is studied and carefully computed, using expenditures for past, current, and anticipated future costs as a barometer. Each line item within the total budget is calculated as nearly as possible for the exact amounts required. Requests in each of the line items for each appropriation are justified with a succinct written explanation which accompanies the completed budget forms. All budget forms, object code forms, back-up sheets, written justifications, etc. are arranged in book form. After much detailed compilation, the annual budgets for the Supreme Court and allied appropriations are finalized and delivered to the Bureau of the Budget. The completion date for submitting budgets to the Bureau of the Budget is December of each year.

The accounting division prepares the necessary appropriation legislation. Staff members of the Senate and House of Representatives review the budget carefully for the purpose of recommending reductions, approvals or disapprovals of every budgetary request contained within the total budget. Conferences are held with these staff members prior to the committee hearings. The Supervisor then appears with the Director before the appropriation committees of the General Assembly to provide information and answer questions relating to the proposed budget.

The payroll section computes all deductions affecting warrants such as Federal and State withholding tax, judicial and state employees' retirement, bonds, and state employees' insurance. This section adds new employees to respective payrolls and deletes resigned, retired, and deceased personnel on a semimonthly and monthly basis. Other payroll functions of the accounting division are to maintain payroll controls, registers and ledgers, and make monthly entries in posting ledgers for each employee with a cumulative balance.

Although statutorily the fiscal year ends June 30th of each year, there is a three month extension of time to allow for payment of all encumbrances contracted prior to July 1st. This means that during the period July through September of each year, the need for careful accounting is greater as there are two fiscal years for which funds are being disbursed.

All vouchers submitted are categorized according to the fiscal year and are thoroughly checked against vendor records to avoid duplicate payment. Routinely, each voucher must be audited according to the administrative standards set within the office. Any discrepancies concerning statements or vouchers are corrected through correspondence or returned for correction. The pre-audit procedures are extensive and are applied before the voucher is processed for payment. The accounting division processes over 20,000 vouchers per annum. Included in this figure are vouchers for judges and court reporters travel expenses as well as transcription fee vouchers. Each of the travel vouchers is checked for proper charges for mileage, lodging, food, receipts and signatures. Transcription fees are audited pursuant to the number of transcript pages and are checked against previous vouchers to avoid duplicate payment.

The State Employees' Insurance Act mandates that all state employees are entitled to insurance coverage pursuant to the master policy on file with the Insurance Commission. Additional duties created by this statute fall within the division. Each employee's record must be perused monthly to establish age, which affects insurance rates. Accordingly, changes in rates automatically dictate adjustments in the payrolls. Also, requests for insurance claims must be handled in the division. There are detailed insurance reports covering transactions under the various options contained in the types of health and life insurance for which each member has subscribed. These intricate reports are furnished to the Insurance Commission on a semimonthly and monthly basis.

All equipment purchased with State funds must be procured in accordance with the State Property Act of Illinois. Tag numbers are affixed to each item, recorded and reported to the Property Control Agency promptly upon payment to the vendors. Monthly reports are reconciled and any discrepancy is pursued and corrected.

Each month all ledgers are balanced with internal controls and those figures are transferred in report form. Copies of the monthly report reflecting the expenditures from each appropriation are furnished to the members of the Supreme Court and the Director. The section of the report relating to each budgetary division in the judicial system is provided to its administrative head.

Subsequent to the close of business of each fiscal year, all ledgers and in-house records are closed and a final fiscal report is filed with the appropriate department. This report discloses the amount of the appropriation, expenditures, and lapses in the appropriation. This report, coupled with in-house statistics, also serves to aid in projecting costs for the forthcoming year.

Pursuant to statute, all cash received in the various departments is deposited in the State Treasury under its respective account number. Ledgers are maintained and all monthly reports are reconciled with the Comptroller and Treasurer. Typical examples of the intake of cash are filing fees, appearance fees, etc.

This division complies with the fiscal policies, accounting principles, controls, operating procedures and reporting requirements of the Comptroller's Unified Statewide Accounting System. Monthly printouts which are produced by the State Comptroller pertinent to cash receipts, obligations, contracts, and appropriation expenditures are reconciled with the in-house records maintained in the accounting division.

The Supreme Court Committee on Criminal Justice Programs was established in 1970 and designated as the principal agency within the Illinois judicial system to plan, coordinate, administer and supervise grantfunded programs designed to improve criminal and juvenile justice. Expenditures relating to these federal grants are processed within this division, records are maintained and reports furnished in compliance with the ILEC regulations on a monthly basis.

The Illinois Constitution of 1970 initiated a fundamental change in the auditing program for the State of Illinois. The new Constitution abolished the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts and established the office of the Comptroller and the office of the Auditor General.

The Auditor General is responsible for the post-audit function in state government and is mandated to do a financial audit of every state agency at least every two years.

In 1973, the Illinois General Assembly passed the Illinois State Auditing Act and expanded the concept of auditing. It includes not only financial and fiscal auditing but also performance and managerial auditing. Effectiveness and efficiency are the bywords of auditing today. It is no longer concerned simply with accounting, but more importantly, with accountability.

To date, the accounting division has maintained a high degree of efficiency and accountability for proper administration of funds and has received favorable audits entirely void of recommendations for amending its procedures.

Supreme Court Rule 39 provides that a vacancy in the office of Associate Judge shall be filled by an elective process among the Circuit Judges. In general, the number of Associate Judges each circuit may have is determined by population (one Associate Judge for every 35,000 inhabitants in the circuit or fraction thereof) and by need. In the latter instance, the Chief Judge files with the Director a statement supporting the circuit's need for an additional Associate Judge, and the Director then makes a recommendation to the Supreme Court which may allocate an additional Associate Judge to the circuit. The "permissive" Associate judgeships are in addition to those authorized under the population formula, and the Supreme Court can authorize new Associate judgeships in those circuits where litigation is particularly heavy.

Once a vacancy exists in the ranks of Associate Judge, whether by death, resignation or authorization of additional Associate Judges, the Chief Judge notifies the bar of the circuit that a vacancy exists and that it will be filled by the Circuit Judges. Any Illinois licensed attorney may apply for the position by completing an application and filing it with the Chief Judge and the Director. In circuits having a population of more than 500,000, a nominating committee selects, from the applicants, twice as many names of qualified candidates as there are vacancies to be filled. The names of the applicants are certified to the Director, who then places the names on a ballot which is mailed to the Circuit Judges. The Director tabulates the ballots and certifies the results to the Chief Judge, maintaining the secrecy of the ballots. In circuits having a population of more than 500,000 the candidates receiving the most votes are declared to be appointed to fill the vacancies. In circuits of less than 500,000 population, candidates receiving a majority of the votes cast are declared to be appointed to fill the vacancies.

During 1979, the Director certified that the following attorneys were appointed as Associate Judges:

The four year term of all Associate Judges expired on June 30, 1979. Consequently, it was necessary, under Supreme Court Rule 39(c) to conduct a retention election, among the Circuit Judges, to determine which Associate Judges seeking reappointment would be so reappointed for another four year term.

Of the 153 downstate Associate Judges seeking reappointment, 139 were reappointed. The number of downstate Associate Judges not reappointed and their circuits are as follows:

Circuit	Not Reappointed
3rd	2

9th	1
13th	2
14th	2
17th	1
18th	1
20th	1

Of the 129 Associate Judges seeking reappointment, in Cook County, all were so reappointed.

Judicial Economic Statements

Supreme Court Rule 68 provides that the Administrative Director shall be the custodian of certain statements of economic interest which must be filed annually by Illinois judges. The rule provides that judges must file annually with the Director: "(1) a sealed, verified, written statement of economic interests and relationships of himself and members of his immediate family and (2) an unsealed, verified, written list of the names of the corporations and other businesses in which he or members of his immediate family have a financial interest."

The sealed statements shall be opened only by the Supreme Court or by the Illinois Courts Commission when specifically authorized by the Supreme Court for use in proceedings of the Commission. As to the unsealed statements, within 30 days after an order has been entered in any case, any party may request information concerning whether the most recent unsealed list of the judge entering that order contains the name of any specific person, corporation or other business which is a party to the case or which has an interest in its outcome as described in Rule 66.

Judicial Statistics

The Administrative Office collects, compiles and analyzes statistics relating to the number, kind and disposition of cases in the Illinois judicial system. The value of these court statistics lies in their ability to measure how well the court system is functioning in terms of the orderly and timely disposition of cases and to serve as the basis for administrative decisions. For example, the assignment of judges to heavier volume circuits and determining the need for more or fewer judges in a particular circuit are made possible by analyzing caseloads and the age of cases as revealed by the statistics. In addition to their use within the court system, the court statistics are of value to persons outside the court system who are interested in the social and economic implications of increases in various types of litigation.

The statistical reports currently maintained by the Administrative Office and published in this report are as follows:

The Administrative Office also receives and maintains monthly reports from judges in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Law Division and Domestic Relations Division and the 20 downstate circuits, which show the amount of time spent on their cases. Monthly reports showing the trend of cases in Cook County are issued, in addition to this annual report.

Recordkeeping

The clerks of the circuit courts, in seventy-five of the 101 downstate counties, are uniformly maintaining the records and case files of their respective courts, using forms and procedures prescribed by the Supreme Court's General Administrative Order on Recordkeeping in the Circuit Courts. The clerks in fifty-seven of these seventy-five counties have also implemented the prescribed uniform procedures for maintaining a complete bookkeeping system. This system includes forms for receipt and check vouchers, receipts and disbursements journals and a general ledger.

Although they have not yet been required to do so, several of the clerks in the remaining twenty-six counties have elected to adopt the use of many of the uniform forms and procedures specified in the Supreme Court Order.

UNIFORM RECORDKEEPING IN THE CIRCUIT COURTS

Judicial Management Information Systems

Over the last nine years, partially through the use of grant funds awarded by the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission, sixteen Illinois counties have established various automated data processing systems for the courts. The sixteen counties are: Champaign, Cook, Du Page, Kane, Lake, Madison, McHenry, Ogle, Peoria, Rock Island, St. Clair, Sangamon, Warren, Whiteside, Will and Winnebago.

Predictably, each of these systems developed along a separate path, using different consultants, equipment and programs. In view of these developments, the Supreme Court, with the assistance of the Director and the information system specialist on the staff of the Supreme Court Committee on Criminal Justice Programs, on March 28, 1978, adopted the Judicial Management Information System Standards. The same considerations, such as uniformity, accuracy and reliable reporting, that prompted the development of the Supreme Court's Administrative Order on Recordkeeping, in 1968, also apply to recordkeeping by automated systems.

Among other things, the Standards establish the Judicial Management Advisory Committee, for the purpose of planning and evaluating judicial management information systems. The committee is responsible to the Administrative Office and is assisted by the staff of the Supreme Court Committee on Criminal Justice Programs. The Advisory Committee consists of the Chief Judge of each circuit or his designee.

The Standards provide that any circuit plans for initiating or significantly modifying a judicial management information system must be approved by the Administrative Office. This will insure that the Standards are complied with and that such systems meet the information requirements of the circuit and the Administrative Office.

Continued study and communication with the various court data processing projects, by the Administrative Office, will result in a unified approach to the development of these systems. In order to insure that automated records, statistics and reports will be compatible and uniform, the Administrative Office is supporting three major projects.

In the first project, the Supreme Court Committee, using grant funds, has contracted with SEARCH Group, Inc. to develop a Circuit Court Coding Manual. To insure that the Coding Manual is comprehensive, realistic and valid, the development of the Coding Manual is being supervised and reviewed by the Judicial Management Advisory Committee. The first segment of the Coding Manual should be completed by June 10, 1980, with subsequent segments to be completed by June 30, 1981. The adoption of the codes and definitions contained in the Coding Manual by counties which have automated or plan to automate court records would be the first step toward the standardization necessary for automated transfer of statutorily required reports.

In the second project, the First and Fourth Districts of the Appellate Court are working together to develop a prototype information system for the reviewing courts. Using grant funding, with coordination and staffing provided through the Supreme Court Committee, the First and Fourth Districts anticipate the installation of case recordkeeping and management modules by June 30, 1981.

The third project, entitled the Judicial Management Informaton System Study, will identify and develop realistic plans for the future management and automation of court records. This project has been undertaken as a logical consequence to five years of study, by the Administrative Office, the Supreme Court Committee and the Judicial Management Advisory Committee, of automated court systems in Illinois and other states, technological trends and projected future needs. The contract for this project has been awarded to Arthur Young & Company, with a scheduled completion date of November 3, 1980.

Experiences from other states and within Illinois have indicated that the best way to approach court automation is to allow the people who will use the system—judges, clerks, probation officers, court administrators and agencies receiving informaton from the courts—and the people who will finance the system—legislators and county board members—to design the system through their individual input regarding ongoing needs and problems. Comprehensive input of this nature will be translated into the technological specificatons required for system design. The Administrative Office has adopted this participatory approach as the foundation for building a judicial management information system in Illinois.

Official Court Reporters

Testing Programs

The Administrative Office prepares and presents Official Court Reporters Proficiency Examinations to determine the qualifications of applicants for the position of Official Court Reporter. Tests are administered by the Administrative Office several times each year (III. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, par. 657). To date, 2,718 persons have attempted to qualify either for appointment as Official Court Reporters or for advancement to a higher pay level within the Official Court Reporter ranks. A proficiency test has two parts: "A" and "B". The "A" part requires the greatest proficiency while the "B" part is less demanding. Each test consists of a two-voice Q & A section and a legal opinion section. Each test is dictated by professional readers. Candidates who pass the proficiency examinations may be appointed to the post of Official Court Reporter by any Chief Judge of any Circuit Court. By statute, the Supreme Court determines the number of Official Court Reporters in each circuit (III. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, par. 653). The Court may increase or decrease the number of court reporters in any circuit after considering various factors provided for by statute.

As of December 31, 1979, there were 536 Official Court Reporters in Illinois, — of which 14 were part time.

During 1979, 10 Official Court Reporter Proficiency Examinations were administered - 5 in Chicago and 5 in Normal. Of 536 applicants, 434 actually sat for the test, 102 failed to appear, 188 passed part "A", and 89 passed part "B". Eight did not turn in any transcript after sitting for the test. Former part "C" was not offered during 1979.

Secretariat

The Administrative Office serves as secretary to the Judicial Conference and a host of committees and sub-committees. In addition to arranging meetings, recording minutes and keeping records, the office acts as a fact finding body, does research, conducts surveys and apprises judges of recent developments in procedural and substantive law. Some of the committees served by the Administrative Office during 1979 included:

1. The Executive Committee of the Judicial Conference. Supreme Court Rule 41 designates the Administrative Office as secretary to the Conference. The office handles all details for the regular monthly meetings of the Executive Committee, including research, drafting of minutes, preparing agendas, arranging meetings and assisting the chairman with his correspondence. The office implements plans for the annual Conference, the annual Associate Judge Seminar and the regional seminars. The office also acts as secretary to all the study and seminar committees.

2. Conference of Chief Circuit Judges. Supreme Court Rule 42 designates the Administrative Office as Secretary. The office prepares agendas, arranges the monthly meetings, and maintains close liaison with the chairman.

3. Courts Commission. The Director, pursuant to Rule 2 of Rules of Procedure of the Commission, is the secretary in all proceedings before the Commission. He performs the duties ordinarily performed by Circuit Court clerks, preserves the records, and prepares subpoenas returnable before the Commission.

4. Administrative Committee of the Appellate Court. The office arranges meetings, assists in drafting proposed rule changes, and provides research assistance.

5. The Committee on Juvenile Problems. This is a standing committee of the Judicial Conference, responsible for studying problems relating to juvenile proceedings. This committee has developed forms for use in juvenile proceedings, conducted seminars, drafted Supreme Court rules and developed a benchbook for use in juvenile proceedings. 6. The Committee on Court Services. This is a standing committee of the Judicial Conference, established in 1975 to study, evaluate and make recommendations concerning court services such as probation, mental health, clerks, social and other ancillary court services.

7. Study Committee on Jury Selection and Utilization. This is a study committee of the Judicial Conference established for the purpose of studying and reporting on specific problems relating to jury selection and utilization.

8. Study Committee on High Volume Courts. This committee was appointed to study the problems of high volume courts and to recommend improved procedures for them.

9. Study Committee on Court Appointed Fiduciaries. This committee was appointed for the purpose of studying policies and procedures followed in the appointment of fiduciaries such as receivers, guardians etc., and to make recommendations thereon.

10. Study Committee on Bail Procedures. This committee was appointed for the purpose of reviewing the practice under Illinois' bail system and making recommendations for statutory or rule changes to correct any deficiencies.

11. Study Committee on Contempt.

12. AdHoc Committee on Processing Search Warrants.

13. Supreme Court Committee to Study Rules 61-71.

14. Study Committee on Procedures in Quasi-Criminal and Ordinance Violation Cases.

15. Supreme Court Rules Committee.

16. Subcommittee on Judicial Education. This is a standing committee of the Judicial Conference, charged with the responsibility of planning and organizing the regional seminar program.

Impartial Medical Expert Rule

The Administrative Director is charged with the responsibility of administering Supreme Court Rule 215(d), which provides as follows:

(d) Impartial Medical Experts.

(1) Examination Before Trial. At a reasonable time in advance of the trial, the court may on its own motion, or that of any party, order an impartial physical or mental examination of a party whose mental or physical condition is in issue, when in the court's discretion it appears that such an examination will materially aid in the just determination of the case. The examination shall be made by a member or members of a panel of physicians chosen for their special qualifications by the Illinois State Medical Society.

(2) Examination During Trial. Should the court at any time during the trial find that compelling considerations make it advisable to have an examination and report at that time, the court may in its discretion so order.

(3) Copies of Report. A copy of the report of examination shall be given to the court and to the attorneys for the parties.

(4) Testimony of Examining Physician. Either party or the court may call the examining physician or physicians to testify. Any physician so called shall be subject to cross-examination.

(5) Costs and Compensation of Physician. The examination shall be made, and the physician or physicians, if called, shall testify without cost to the parties. The court shall determine the compensation of the physician or physicians.

(6) Administration of Rule. The Administrative Director and the Deputy Administrative Director are charged with the administration of the rule."

The statistical summaries on the following pages provide a profile of the use of Rule 215(d) in the Circuit Courts, since its inception.

It should be explained again this year that the statistical breakdown is divided, necessarily, into the categories of "orders", "examinations" and "costs", which refer to those entered, performed or charged in the current year.

Representation By Supervised Senior Law Students

During 1979, 496 temporary licenses were issued. Since the rule's inception in May, 1969, a total of 4,893 senior law students have participated in this legal internship program.

The comparative chart below indicates the use of Rule 711 in the last six years.

Illinois Supreme Court Rule 711 provides for the temporary licensing of law students who are certified by their dean as having received credit for work representing at least two thirds of the total hourly credits required for graduation from the law school. The student must be in good academic standing and be eligible under the school's criteria to undertake the activities authorized by the rule.

The services authorized by the rule may only be carried on in the course of the student's work with one or more of the following:

"(1) A legal aid bureau, legal assistance program, organization, or clinic chartered by the State of Illinois or approved by a law school located in Illinois;

(2) The office of the public defender;

(3) A law office of the State or any of its subdivisions."

Under the supervision of a member of the bar of this State, and with the written consent of the person on whose behalf he is acting, an eligible law student may render the following services:

- "(1) He may counsel with clients, negotiate in the settlement of claims, and engage in the preparation and drafting of legal instruments.
- (2) He may appear in the trial courts and administrative tribunals of this State, subject to the following qualifications:
 - (i) Appearances, pleadings, motions, and other documents to be filed with the court may be prepared by the student and may be signed by him with the accompanying designation Senior Law Student but must also be signed by the supervising member of the bar.
 - (ii) In criminal cases, in which the penalty may be imprisonment, in proceedings challenging sentences of imprisonment, and in civil or criminal contempt proceedings, the student may participate in pretrial, trial, and post-trial proceedings as an assistant of the supervising member of the bar, who shall be present and responsible for the conduct of the proceedings.
 - (iii) In all other civil and criminal cases the student may conduct all pretrial, trial, and post-trial proceedings, and the supervising member of the bar need not be present.
- (3) He may prepare briefs, excerpts from record, abstracts, and other documents filed in courts of review of the State, which may set forth the name of the student with the accompanying designation Senior Law Student but must be filed in the name of the supervising member of the bar."

Legislation

The Administrative Office has developed a sound working relationship with the General Assembly and the Governor's office. In addition to appearing before the appropriation committees of the legislature to testify concerning the State judicial budget, the Director is frequently called upon to appear before the judiciary committees to advise on proposed legislation affecting the courts.

During 1979 numerous bills affecting civil and criminal procedure, juvenile justice, the operation of the court system and court personnel were introduced in the General Assembly.

A synopsis of selected bills affecting the courts is prepared by the Administrative Office each year. The progress of the bills is noted and the synopsis is continuously updated. At the end of the legislative session the Governor's action on each bill is also noted, and the synopsis is mailed to all Illinois judges. Among the bills which were passed during 1979 are the following (references are to III. Rev. Stat., ch. __, par. __):

(Adoption, Child Custody, Mature Minors and Juvenile Court Act)

P.A. 81-345 amends ch. 37, §§704-7, 705-2, 705-3 by adding new sections. EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1980. Continuing Judicial Education

In its capacity as secretariat to the Judicial Conference, the staff of the Administrative Office is responsible for implementing the programs of continuing judicial education developed by the Executive Committee and the Subcommittee on Judicial Education.

Between 1964 and 1971, continuing judicial education in Illinois consisted largely of seminars on various legal topics held in conjunction with the annual Judicial Conference, the annual Associate Judge Seminar (begun in 1966) and the New Judge Seminar (begun in 1968 and held every two years). However, beginning in 1971, the continuing judicial education program was expanded to include regional seminars on criminal law. Based on the success of these regional seminars, the program was expanded to include regional seminars on juvenile law and civil law topics. By 1976 as many as ten regional seminars were conducted in addition to the annual programs. The regional seminars were sponsored and conducted by the Committee on Criminal Law for Illinois Judges, the Juvenile Problems Committee and the Committee on Civil Law Seminars. Recognizing the growth of the regional seminar program and the need for greater coordination, the Judicial Conference's Executive Committee, in early 1976, established the Subcommittee on Judicial Education. This committee now has the full responsibility to conduct the program of regional seminars.

Originally, the regional seminars were 1-1/2 days in duration. Under the reorganized program of the Subcommittee on Judicial Education the regional seminars are now generally 2-1/2 days in duration and are devoted to basic legal subjects such as Civil Remedies, Criminal Law, and Civil Procedure.

Attendance at the annual Conference, Associate Judge Seminar and New Judge Seminar is mandatory. Attendance at the regional seminars is not mandatory, but an effort is made, through the Chief Circuit Judges, to have those judges attend who have recently been assigned to those areas to be covered at the seminars and who would benefit most from attending.

The staff of the Chicago office has spent an increasing amount of time (approximately one-half) in meeting with seminar committees and making arrangements for these programs.

As secretary to the various seminar committees and faculties, the staff arranges all committee meetings, conducts surveys to determine preferred topics, retains law professors to serve on the faculties, and arranges for seminar facilities. In addition the staff provides for the duplication and distribution of all reading and reference materials used at the seminars.

During 1979, the following judicial education programs were conducted:

(1) 1979 Annual Associate Judge Seminar - March, 28, 29
and 30, 1979	Chicago
(2) 1979 Annual Judicial

Synopsis of Supreme Court Opinions

As an adjunct of its continuing judicial education function, the Administrative Office reviews the decisions of the Supreme Court. Synopses of selected opinions are then prepared and mailed to all Illinois judges, before the cases are published in the advance sheets. During 1979, summaries of 45 Supreme Court opinions were included in this service.

Judicial Visitation to Penal Institutions

Frequent turmoil in some penal institutions has placed the condition of the national and state prisons in the forefront of public concern. Indeed, probing guestions have been raised by the general public and governmental officials as to the objectives and purposes of incarceration. Too, the wave of serious "street crime" has been portrayed by the news media, penologists, prosecutors and police agencies as a national nightmare. The result has been billions of dollars poured into "people programs" and hardware to combat crime. Predictably, penologists and other "experts" on crime and the criminal justice process have reached into their grab bag of answers and proposed a variety of plans, invariably known as "criminal justice" or "correctional models", which suggest that "flat sentencing" or "decriminalizing" victimless offenses is the answer to reducing criminal activity. Today, the emphasis clearly is on protecting society by incarcerating convicted defendants rather than on rehabilitation.

Illinois' answer to the apparent dissatisfaction with indeterminate sentencing and the parole system is a sweeping revision of the Unified Code of Corrections. In late December of 1977, the governor signed into law P.A. 80-1099, effective February 1, 1978. See, generally, Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 38, §1003-1-2 et seq. In substance, the new Act provides for determinate sentences of incarceration, to be reduced by one day for each day of good conduct credit; provides for mandatory life sentences in certain instances; provides for enhanced sentences of imprisonment upon conviction of certain offenses; and abolishes the Parole and Pardon Board. To accommodate the anticipated increase in prison population as well as present prison overpopulation, funds were appropriated to construct two major penitentiaries and to expand existing prison facilities.

These developments suggest a shift in the public policy regarding the treatment of convicted defendants; yet, it is still true that no person has a greater responsibility and burden of determining whether a convicted defendant will lose, in most instances, his freedom by imprisonment than the sentencing judge. In making that decision the judge considers many factors including the feasibility of rehabilitation, reintegration of the defendant into society and the best forum to accomplish these objectives.

Recognizing that judges must be familiar with the State's penal system and programs, the Director of the Administrative Office and the Director of the Illinois Department of Corrections formulated plans for organized visits by judges to the various correctional facilities. During the period 1971-1978, thirteen programs were held in which a total of 445 Illinois judges participated.

During 1979, the Administrative Office did not directly sponsor any visits to correctional institutions. However, the Illinois Judicial Conference did sponsor judicial visits to three correctional institutions. In conjunction with the Judicial Conference's regional education seminars, one major adult penitentiary was visited by a number of judges, and the Conference's Committee on Juvenile Problems sponsored an inspection tour of two juvenile institutions. These visitations are commented on elsewhere in this Report.

Judicial Visits to Juvenile Institutions

On April 19, 1979, 24 Circuit and Associate Judges visited the Department of Corrections' juvenile facilities at St. Charles and Valley View. The tour began at St. Charles, with an explanation of the Juvenile Division's programs presented by the Administrator of Youth Services and the Superintendent of St. Charles. The judges, escorted by 6 of the juvenile inmates, were shown all the facilities, including the disciplinary lockup cottage. The escorts joined the judges for lunch and engaged in open and frank discussion about themselves and St. Charles. After lunch, the judges traveled to Valley View, a minimum security institution. The Superintendent described the institution and its programs. The judges then toured the facility, escorted by 6 of the juvenile inmates. After the tour, the group assembled in a classroom where an open discussion was had with the escorts and staff. The tour was a valuable experience for the judges and their response was very positive.

Trial Court Administration Conference

III. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, §72.4-1 provides that the Chief Judge of each circuit may appoint an Administrative Secretary to assist him in carrying out his administrative duties in the circuit. Each circuit in the State, except Cook County, has filled this position. In 1973 the Administrative Office sponsored and conducted an Administrative Secretaries Conference for the purpose of assisting the Administrative Secretaries develop a more thorough understanding of the judicial system and to provide them with the opportunity to discuss mutual problems. The value of this program was apparent and, consequently, the conference was conducted annually thereafter.

In the past several years, a number of Illinois judicial circuits have employed trial court administrators, and it became necessary to include them in the annual program. As a result, the emphasis on trial court administration, in the annual program, was expanded.

The 1979 conference was attended by 15 Administrative Secretaries, 8 trial court administrators and 13 secretaries to Presiding Judges in the Circuit Court of Cook County.

The agenda and discussion leaders were as follows:

1979 Court Management Seminar

The increasing volume of cases and growth of the profession of trial court administrator has given rise to the need to provide training programs, in modern court management practices, for Chief Circuit Judges and their administrative staffs. On an experimental basis, the Director authorized a 2-1/2-day court management seminar and established a steering committee consisting of Hon. Harry G. Comerford, Hon. Bill J. Slater, Hon. George Unverzagt and the Director. The committee reviewed the proposal submitted by Mr. Tom Cameron, Institute for Court Management, for the seminar format and topics to be covered. The committee expressed the concern that the conference should be practical and relevant to Illinois, in addition to presenting management principles. With this directive, the Institute developed its program. The conference was held on February 21, 22 and 23, 1979, at the Continental Plaza, Chicago. The conference was attended by 16 Chief Circuit Judges, 7 Presiding Judges from the Circuit Court of Cook County, 9 trial court administrators, 16 Administrative Secretaries, 6 secretaries to Presiding Judges from the Circuit Court of Cook County, the Director and 5 staff persons from the Administrative Office.

The topics and discussion leaders were as follows:

	1%	89%	10%

As a result of the success of this conference, an advanced conference will probably be held at a future date.

Probation Division

(Legislation)

A substantial step toward establishing a system of professional probation services in Illinois was taken in 1978. "An Act in relation to subsidy for probation officers" (P.A. 80-1483), Ill. Rev. Stat., ch. 37, par. 706-7; ch. 38, pars. 204-6, 204-7, places, within the Administrative Office, certain responsibilities and authority to improve probation services. The provisions of the Act are consistent with recommendations developed by the Committee on Probation and approved by the Executive Committee of the Judicial Conference in 1974. The Act authorizes the Administrative Office to:

- 1. Establish and monitor hiring and promotional standards for state subsidized adult and juvenile probation officers.
- 2. Provide up to $400 per month state salary subsidy for qualified probation officers.
- 3. Establish a uniform recordkeeping system and forms.
- 4. Establish a system of collecting uniform statistical information on probation services.
- 5. Establish a system for training to improve the quality of probation services throughout the state.
- 6. Seek the cooperation of local and state government and private agencies to improve the quality of probation services.

To implement the Act, a Probation Division was established within the Administrative Office. The Division is based in Springfield and is staffed by one Supervisor, two Assistant Supervisors and two secretaries.

(Standards)

Upon the establishment of the Probation Division, the Supreme Court, at the request of the Director, appointed an Advisory Committee on Minimum Qualifications for Probation Officers. The Advisory Committee is comprised of an equal number of judges and probation administrators.

Working with the staff of the Administrative Office, the Advisory Committee developed a comprehensive set of standards on minimum qualifications for the hiring, promotion and training of probation personnel eligible for probation subsidy under the Act. These regulations were approved by the Supreme Court. See pages 94-96 of the 1978 Annual Report.

Simultaneously, the staff of the Probation Division developed forms for requesting probation subsidy reimbursement, guidelines for the utilization of these forms and an administrative policy statement governing eligibility for the Illinois probation subsidy and related matters, along with methods for verifying compliance with the requirements of the Act and related probation regulations of the Administrative Office.

Copies of the legislation, regulations, policy statements, forms and procedures were distributed to all chief judges, county treasurers and probation administrators prior to January 31, 1979, and probation subsidy reimbursement vouchers were being processed by the Division by February 1, 1979.

During January, 1979, probation subsidy reimbursement totaling $466,996 was made to 85 Illinois counties employing probation officers. Seventeen Illinois counties did not receive any probation subsidy, because the salaries of probation personnel did not meet the $11,000 minimum required by the statute or because probation officers in those counties were employed on a part time basis.

During 1979, the number of counties receiving probation subsidy reimbursement increased from 85 to 92. For December, 1979, the probation subsidy paid to the respective counties totaled $508,237.

(Statistics)

In March, 1979, the Division developed and distributed a set of uniform annual statistical reporting forms to all probation and court services departments. The principal focus of the first year's statistical requirements was caseload and investigative workload statistics broken down by type; information regarding detention and shelter care of juvenile offenders; juvenile petitions and intakes for 1978; and, in addition, budgetary information on probation department expenditures and revenue for county fiscal year 1978-79. The Division, upon receiving the requested data from the counties, assembled the information in a statewide format and distributed the information to each county and to state, public and private agencies.

It should be noted that this was the first time, in Illinois, that comprehensive statewide data on probation had been made available. The Division will continue to refine its data collection and expand the amount of information gathered with particular focus on the flow of cases through the system and the efficacy of probation as an alternative to incarceration.

(Training)

In carrying out its statutory duties in the area of probation and court services training, the Division developed a plan for the assessment of the training needs of probation and court services officers throughout the State, based on an assessment of the duties and responsibilities of each level of professional personnel, identification of the skills needed to carry out these duties and responsibilities in a professional manner and assessments of individual probation officers' strengths and weaknesses in each of the skill areas. This assessment process was carried out by the Division working closely with the probation administrators, throughout the State, through a series of regional assessment meetings.

To deliver probation training, the Director entered into contracts for training outside Cook County, principally with the Center for Legal Studies of Sangamon State University, but also with Southern Illinois University, Illinois State University and some national training consultants. In Cook County, the Director entered into a contract with the Training Division of the Cook County Department of Personnel to provide training to the three probation and court services departments within Cook County. For several years both Sangamon State University and the Cook County Department of Personnel's Training Unit had been providing voluntary probation training with grant funds from the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission. It appeared logical to provide training, in a framework already known to the probation community, by organizations already structured to provide probation officer training. All contractors work under the close supervision of the Probation Division. The standards for training, developed by an Advisory Committee on Probation Standards, encompass basic and ongoing training for all levels of professional probation staff. During the period January 1, 1979 through December 31, 1979, the Division provided training to 385 Illinois probation officers totaling 9,380 training hours. In addition, the Division certified, in lieu of Division sponsored training, training received from other sources by Illinois probation personnel.

(Interstate Compact)

In January of 1979, the Illinois Department of Corrections requested the Administrative Office to consider assuming administrative responsibilities for the probation portion of the Interstate Compact for the Supervision of Parolees and Probationers. Ill. Rev. Stat. 1977, ch. 38, par. 1003-3-11 et seq. After careful study, the Administrative Director agreed to take on this added responsibility under the provisions of Public Act 80-1483, directing the Administrative Office to cooperate with local, state and private agencies to improve the quality of probation services in Illinois.

The Probation Division assumed this added responsibility on July 1, 1979. Since that time it has received and processed 7,749 requests for information and/or assistance as provided by the Interstate Compact.

As of December 31, 1979, there were 2,417 out-ofstate probationers under probation supervision within the State of Illinois and 1,591 Illinois probationers being supervised by other states. The Interstate Compact, as it relates to probationers, is now operating on an expeditious and uniformly professional basis in the State of Illinois. The Division staff developed a set of forms to streamline compact operations and sponsored a series of statewide regional workshops to acquaint all probation administrators with the legal requirements and procedures of the Interstate Compact.

(Technical Assistance)

In a further effort to assist state and local government in improving the quality of probation services, in the State of Illinois, the Division has engaged in an extensive program for providing technical assistance to county and circuit-wide departments of probation and court services by conducting in-depth probation management studies focusing on the organization, operation, service delivery system and programs in probation departments, throughout the State. These studies are undertaken in response to specific requests from the chief judges of individual circuits. During the period from January 1, 1979 through December 31, 1979, the staff of the Probation Division completed and published probation management studies on 20 Illinois counties. Field work on studies in eleven additional counties has been completed and is in the process of publication.

In addition, the Division has established liaison with other pertinent state agencies including the Illinois Department of Corrections, Illinois Commission on Delinquency Prevention, Illinois Law Enforcement Commission and the Illinois Commission on Children. The Division constantly shares information and ideas with these agencies, on matters of mutual interest. The Division is developing and cataloging an extensive library of professional books and publications in the area of pretrial services, juvenile justice, adult and juvenile diversion, probation and community based correctional services. This library is available as a reference source to all probation departments and other criminal justice agencies.

The Division is involved in active participation in a number of committees including the Illinois Department of Corrections Workload Management System Task Force; the Urban Problems Study Commission's Illinois Counties Criminal Justice Financing Assessment Study Council; the Illinois Commission on Children's Committee on Youth and the Law; the League of Women Voters Steering Committee's Juvenile Court Watching Project; and the Judicial Management Advisory Committee.

(Monitoring)

In order to assure total compliance with the statutory and regulatory requirements for receiving the probation subsidy, the Division has developed an extensive monitoring system including assembly and maintenance of individual personnel files on every probation officer within the State of Illinois, and monitoring new hirings, promotions and terminations on a daily basis. The Division has also implemented a recordkeeping system for training so that on any given day the training needs and accomplishments of each probation officer receiving subsidy reimbursement can be monitored. The monitoring function also includes field visits on a random basis to probation departments to examine probation personnel records as well as payroll records of the county, to assure compliance with subsidy reauirements.

(The Year Ahead)

Public Act 80-1483 requires that the Division establish a uniform recordkeeping system and forms. The Division will move ahead in this area during 1980. The Division has accumulated representative forms from many Illinois counties as well as from other states, and will be disseminating a set of suggested uniform forms, along with the recommended uniform recordkeeping procedures, after careful study of this material and after receiving input from probation administrators.

The Division is also in the process of evaluating its training efforts, with a view to restructuring the method of delivering training to Illinois probation officers, to make it more cost effective and to revise content of the basic training programs, for line staff supervisors, to be more realistic and useful to the participants.

The Division will also expand the gathering and analysis of probation and court services statistics to focus on workload analysis and cost effectiveness and will try to relate the results to the role of probation, in the criminal justice system.

Future plans also include expansion of informational services and technical assistance to county probation departments, as well as an increase in subsidy monitoring activities. The Division will also provide assistance to the county probation departments in developing techniques for specialized program evaluation.

Eavesdropping Reports

With the passage of Illinois' eavesdropping statute (III. Rev. Stat., ch. 38, §108A-1 et seq.) an added responsibility was placed upon the Administrative Office. Within 30 days after the expiration of an order authorizing the use of an eavesdropping device, or within 30 days after the denial of an application, the issuing or denying judge must report certain information to the Administrative Office. Also, in January of each year, the States' Attorney of each county in which eavesdropping devices were used must report certain detailed information to the Administrative Office concerning the use of such eavesdropping devices. Thereafter, in April of each year, the Director of the Administrative Office must transmit to the General Assembly a report summarizing the information he has received on the use of eavesdropping devices during the preceding calendar year. The section of the statute creating these responsibilities is as follows:

"108A—11. §108A-11. Reports Concerning Use of Eavesdropping Devices. (a) Within 30 days after the expiration of an order and each extension thereof authorizing the use of an eavesdropping device, or within 30 days after the denial of an application or disapproval of an application subsequent to any alleged emergency situation, the issuing or denying judge shall report to the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts the following:

(1) the fact that such an order, extension, or subsequent approval of an emergency was applied for;

(2) the kind of order or extension applied for;

(3) a statement as to whether the order or extension was granted as applied for was modified, or was denied;

(4) the period authorized by the order or extensions in which an eavesdropping device could be used;

(5) the felony specified in the order, extension or denied application;

(6) the identity of the applying investigative or law enforcement officer and agency making the application and the State's Attorney authorizing the application; and

(7) the nature of the facilities from which or the place where the eavesdropping device was to be used.

(b) In January of each year the State's Attorney of each county in which eavesdropping devices were used pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall report to the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts the following:

(1) the information required by subsections (a) (1) through (a) (7) of this Section with respect to each application for an order or extension made during the preceding calendar year;

(2) a general description of the uses of eavesdropping devices actually made under such order to overhear or record conversations, including: (a) the approximate nature and frequency of incriminating conversations overheard, (b) the approximate nature and frequency of other conversations overheard, (c) the approximate number of persons whose conversations were overheard, and (d) the approximate nature, amount, and cost of the manpower and other resources used pursuant to the authorization to use an eavesdropping device;

(3) the number of arrests resulting from authorized uses of eavesdropping devices and the offenses for which arrests were made;

(4) the number of trials resulting from such uses of eavesdropping devices;

(5) the number of motions to suppress made with respect to such uses, and the number granted or denied; and

(6) the number of convictions resulting from such uses and the offenses for which the convictions were obtained and a general assessment of the importance of the convictions.

(c) In April of each year, the Director of the Administrative Office of Illinois Courts shall transmit to the General Assembly a report including information on the number of applications for orders authorizing the use of eavesdropping devices, the number of orders and extensions granted or denied during the preceding calendar year, the convictions arising out of such uses, and a summary of the information required by subsections (a) and (b) of this Section. Added by P.A. 79— 1159 §2, eff. July 1, 1976."

During 1979, notices of 158 orders authorizing eavesdropping were filed with the Administrative Office by State's Attorneys and judges. Of the 158 orders, 115 were original and 43 were extensions or modifications.

In the 158 cases in which eavesdropping was ordered, 144 persons were arrested, of which number 26 were convicted of an offense.

Some examples of the most common types of offenses, for which authorized eavesdropping was used in 1979, are: murder, arson, bribery, and unlawful delivery of a controlled substance. Private homes and various business premises were the most common places where authorized eavesdropping was used, in addition to agents carrying eavesdropping devices on their persons.

Public Information and Publications

The Director and staff are frequently asked to address civic groups, Bar associations, legislative commissions and court reform groups concerning court administration and the structure and operation of Illinois' unified court system. Some of the organizations addressed during 1979 were:

April 6	 14th Circuit Probation
	Department
June 15-16	- Court Reporter Seminar
October 6	- Official Court Reporters
	Convention
December 14	- Committee on Corrections
December 21	- Illinois Academy of

APPENDIX A CONSTITUTION OF 1970 ARTICLE VI—THE JUDICIARY

Section 1. Courts

The judicial power is vested in a Supreme Court, an Appellate Court and Circuit Courts.

Section 2. Judicial Districts

The State is divided into five Judicial Districts for the selection of Supreme and Appellate Court Judges. The First Judicial District consists of Cook County. The remainder of the State shall be divided by law into four Judicial Districts of substantially equal population, each of which shall be compact and composed of contiguous counties.

Section 3. Supreme Court— Organization

The Supreme Court shall consist of seven judges. Three shall be selected from the First Judicial District and one from each of the other Judicial Districts. Four Judges constitute a quorum and the concurrence of four is necessary for a decision. Supreme Court Judges shall select a Chief Justice from their number to serve for a term of three years.

Section 4. Supreme Court— Jurisdiction

(a) The Supreme Court may exercise original jurisdiction in cases relating to revenue, mandamus, prohibition or habeas corpus and as may be necessary to the complete determination of any case on review.

(b) Appeals from judgments of Circuit Courts imposing a sentence of death shall be directly to the Supreme Court as a matter of right. The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for direct appeal in other cases.

(c) Appeals from the Appellate Court to the Supreme Court are a matter of right if a question under the Constitution of the United States or of this State arises for the first time in and as a result of the action of the Appellate Court, or if a division of the Appellate Court certifies that a case decided by it involves a question of such importance that the case should be decided by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court may provide by rule for appeals from the Appellate Court in other cases.

Section 5. Appellate Court— Organization

The number of Appellate Judges to be selected from each Judicial District shall be provided by law. The Supreme Court shall prescribe by rule the number of Appellate divisions in each Judicial District. Each Appellate division shall have at least three judges. Assignments to divisions shall be made by the Supreme Court. A majority of a division constitutes a quorum and the concurrence of a majority of the division is necessary for a decision. There shall be at least one division in each Judicial District and each division shall sit at times and places prescribed by rules of the Supreme Court.

Section 6. Appellate Court— Jurisdiction

Appeals from final judgments of a Circuit Court are a matter of right to the Appellate Court in the Judicial District in which the Circuit Court is located except in cases appealable directly to the Supreme Court and except that after a trial on the merits in a criminal case, there shall be no appeal from a judgment of acquittal. The Supreme Court may provide by rule for appeals to the Appellate Court from other than final judgments of Circuit Courts. The Appellate Court may exercise original jurisdiction when necessary to the complete determination of any case on review. The Appellate Court shall have such powers of direct review of administrative action as provided by law.

Section 7. Judicial Circuits

(a) The State shall be divided into Judicial Circuits consisting of one or more counties. The First Judicial District shall constitute a Judicial Circuit. The Judicial Circuits within the other Judicial Districts shall be as provided by law. Circuits composed of more than one county shall be compact and of contiguous counties. The General Assembly by law may provide for the division of a circuit for the purpose of selection of Circuit Judges and for the selection of Circuit Judges from the circuit at large.

(b) Each Judicial Circuit shall have one Circuit Court with such number of Circuit Judges as provided by law. Unless otherwise provided by law, there shall be at least one Circuit Judge from each county. In the First Judicial District, unless otherwise provided by law, Cook County, Chicago, and the area outside Chicago shall be separate units for the selection of Circuit Judges, with at least twelve chosen a large from the area outside Chicago and at least thirty-six chosen at large from Chicago.

(c) Circuit Judges in each circuit shall select by secret ballot a Chief Judge from their number to serve at their pleasure. Subject to the authority of the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge shall have general administrative authority over his court, including authority to provide for divisions, general or specialized, and for appropriate times and places of holding court.

Section 8. Associate Judges

Each Circuit Court shall have such number of Associate Judges as provided by law. Associate Judges shall be appointed by the Circuit Judges in each circuit as the Supreme Court shall provide by rule. In the First Judicial District, unless otherwise provided by law, at least one-fourth of the Associate Judges shall be appointed from, and reside, outside Chicago. The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for matters to be assigned to Associate Judges.

Section 9. Circuit Courts— Jurisdicion

Circuit Courts shall have original jurisdicion of all justiciable matters except when the Supreme Court has original and exclusive jurisdicion relating to redistricting of the General Assembly and to the ability of the Governor to serve or resume office. Circuit Courts shall have such power to review administrative action as provided by law.

Section 10. Terms Of Office

The terms of office of Supreme and Appellate Court Judges shall be ten years; of Circuit Judges, six years; and of Associate Judges, four years.

Section 11. Eligibility For Office

No person shall be eligible to be a Judge or Associate Judge unless he is a United States citizen; a licensed attorney-at-law of this State, and a resident of the unit which selects him. No change in the boundaries of a unit shall affect the tenure in office of a Judge or Associate Judge incumbent at the time of such change.

Section 12. Election And Retention

(a) Supreme, Appelate and Circuit Judges shall be nominated at primary elections or by petition. Judges shall be elected at general or judicial elections as the General Assembly shall provide by law. A person eligible for the office of Judge may cause his name to appear on the ballot as a candidate for Judge at the primary and at the general or judicial elections by submitting petitions. The General Assembly shall prescribe by law the requirements for petitions.

(b) The office of a Judge shall be vacant upon his death, resignation, retirement, removal, or upon the conclusion of his term without retention in office. Whenever an additional Appellate or Circuit Judge is authorized by law, the office shall be filled in the manner provided for filling a vacancy in that office.

(c) A vacancy occurring in the office of Supreme, Appellate or Circuit Judge shall be filled as the General Assembly may provide by law. In the absence of a law, vacancies may be filled by appointment by the Supreme Court. A person appointed to fill a vacancy 60 or more days prior to the next primary election to nominate Judges shall serve until the vacancy is filled for a term at the next general or judicial election. A person appoined to fill a vacancy less than 60 days prior to the next primary elecion to nominate Judges shall serve until the vacancy is filled at the second general or judicial election following such appointment.

(d) Not less than six months before the general election preceding the expiration of his term of office, a Supreme, Appellate or Circuit Judge who has been elected to that office may file in the office of the Secretary of State a declaration of candidacy to succeed himself. The Secretary of State, not less than 63 days before the election, shall certify the Judge's candidacy to the proper election officials. The names of Judges seeking retention shall be submitted to the electors, separately and without party designation, on the sole question whether each Judge shall be retained in office for another term. The retention elections shall be conduced at general elections in the appropriate Judicial District, for Supreme and Appellate Judges, and in the circuit for Circuit Judges. The affirmative vote of three-fifths of the electors voting on the question shall elect the Judge to the office for a term commencing on the first Monday in December following his election.

(e) A law reducing the number of Appellate or Circuit Judges shall be without prejudice to the right of the Judges affected to seek retenion in office. A reduction shall become effective when a vacancy occurs in the affected unit.

Section 13. Prohibited Activities

(a) The Supreme Court shall adopt rules of conduct for Judges and Associate Judges.

(b) Judges and Associate Judges shall devote full time to judicial duties. They shall not practice law, hold a position of profit, hold office under the United States or this State or unit of local government or school district or in a political party. Service in the State militia or armed forces of the United States for periods of time permitted by rule of the Supreme Court shall not disqualify a person from serving as a Judge or Associate Judge.

Section 14. Judicial Salaries And Expenses—Fee Officers Eliminated

Judges shall receive salaries provided by law which shall not be diminished to take effect during their terms of office. All salaries and such expenses as may be provided by law shall be paid by the State, except that Appellate, Circuit and Associate Judges shall receive such additional compensation from counties within their district or circuit as may be provided by law. There shall be no fee officers in the judicial system.

Section 15. Retirement—Discipline

(a) The General Assembly may provide by law for the retirement of Judges and Associate Judges at a prescribed age. Any retired Judge or Associate Judge, with his consent, may be assigned by the Supreme Court to judicial service for which he shall receive the applicable compensation in lieu of retirement benefits. A retired Associate Judge may be assigned only as an Associate Judge.

(b) A Judicial Inquiry Board is created. The Supreme Court shall select two Circuit Judges as members and the Governor shall appoint four persons who are not lawyers and three lawyers as members of the Board. No more than two of the lawyers and two of the non-lawyers appointed by the Governor shall be members of the same political party. The terms of Board members shall be four years. A vacancy on the Board shall be filled for a full term in the manner the original appointment was made. No member may serve on the Board more than eight years.

(c) The Board shall be convened permanently, with authority to conduct investigations, receive or initiate complaints concerning a Judge or Associate Judge, and file complaints with the Courts Commission. The Board shall not file a complaint unless five members believe that a reasonable basis exists (1) to charge the Judge or Associate Judge with willful misconduct in office, persistent failure to perform his duties, or other conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice or that brings the judicial office into disrepute, or (2) to charge that the Judge or Associate Judge is physically or mentally unable to perform his duties. All proceedings of the Board shall be confidential except the filing of a complaint with the Courts Commission. The Board shall prosecute the complaint.

(d) The Board shall adopt rules governing its procedures. It shall have subpoena power and authority to appoint and direct its staff. Members of the Board who are not Judges shall receive per diem compensation and necessary expenses; members who are Judges shall receive necessary expenses only. The General Assembly by law shall appropriate funds for the operation of the Board.

(e) A Courts Commission is created consisting of one Supreme Court Judge selected by that Court, who shall be its chairman, two Appellate Court Judges selected by that Court, and two Circuit Judges selected by the Supreme Court. The Commission shall be convened permanently to hear complaints filed by the Judicial Inquiry Board. The Commission shall have authority after notice and public hearing (1) to remove from office, suspend without pay, censure or reprimand a Judge or Associate Judge for willful misconduct in office, persistent failure to perform his duties, or other conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice or that brings the judicial office into disrepute, or (2) to suspend, with or without pay, or retire a Judge or Associate Judge who is physically or mentally unable to perform his duties.

(f) The concurrence of three members of the Commission shall be necessary for a decision. The decision of the Commission shall be final.

(g) The Commission shall adopt rules governing its procedures and shall have power to issue subpoenas. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the expenses of the Commission.

Section 16. Administration

General administrative and supervisory authority over all courts is vested in the Supreme Court and shall be exercised by the Chief Justice in accordance with its rules. The Supreme Court shall appoint an administrative director and staff, who shall serve at its pleasure, to assist the Chief Justice in his duties. The Supreme Court may assign a Judge temporarily to any court and an Associate Judge to serve temporarily as an Associate Judge on any Circuit Court. The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for expeditious and inexpensive appeals.

Section 17. Judicial Conference

The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for an annual judicial conference to consider the work of the courts and to suggest improvements in the administration of justice and shall report thereon annually in writing to the General Assembly not later than January 31.

Section 18. Clerks Of Courts

(a) The Supreme Court and the Appellate Court Judges of each Judicial District, respectively, shall appoint a clerk and other non-judicial officers for their Court or District.

(b) The General Assembly shall provide by law for the election, or for the appointment by Circuit Judges, of clerks and other non-judicial officers of the Circuit Courts and for their terms of office and removal for cause.

(c) The salaries of clerks and other non-judicial officers shall be as provided by law.

Section 19. State's Attorneys— Selection, Salary

A State's Attorney shall be elected in each county in 1972 and every fourth year thereafter for a four year term. One State's Attorney may be elected to serve two or more counties if the governing boards of such counties so provide and a majority of the electors of each county voting on the issue approve. A person shall not be eligible for the office of State's Attorney unless he is a United States citizen and a licensed attorney-at-law of this State. His salary shall be provided by law.

APPENDIX B ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE ILLINOIS COURTS

Historical Development

The predecessor of the present Administrative Office of the Illinois courts was a statutory creature into which the General Assembly breathed life in 1959. The entity was known as the Court Administrator's Office, and it so existed until 1964. The office in those past years was chiefly concerned with studying caseloads to determine the needs of particular courts for assistance and to provide a statistical background for further studies.

The 1964 Judicial Article directed that the "Supreme Court shall appoint an administrative director and staff, who shall serve at its pleasure, to assist the Chief Justice in his administrative duties." That provision was retained, virtually intact, by Section 16, Article VI of the 1970 Constitution. Thus, the fledgling administrator's office of 1959 was continued and conferred with constitutional dignity in 1964 and in 1970. Two Illinois constitutional commentators, Messrs. Braden and Cohn, in analyzing this section have stated that "only five (states) have a constitutional office similar to the administrative director provided by Illinois. ...", and the authors noted that the constitutional grant of administrative power to the Supreme Court as exercised by the Chief Justice through the Administrative Director is an excellent "mechanism for a coordinated and efficient administration of the judicial system." Braden and Cohn, The Illinois Constitution: An Annotated and Comparative Analysis, at page 335.

During the years that it has been in existence, the Administrative Office has matured from infancy to adulthood, and correspondingly it has taken on and has been assigned, by the Supreme Court, greater duties and responsibilities. The growth of the office has been carefully nurtured by a succession of highly qualified and distinguished lawyers: Henry P. Chandler, former administrator of the federal court system; Albert J. Harno, former dean of the University of Illinois College of Law; Hon. John C. Fitzgerald, a retired Circuit Judge and former dean of the School of Law of Loyola University, Chicago; John W. Freels, former general counsel of the Illinois Central Railroad. The present Director is Roy O. Gulley, former Chief Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit.

Today, the Administrative Office has more than 30 employees who serve the Supreme Court and supervise the activities of all the courts in the State and court-related personnel. In addition to the Director, the office employs six persons (four of whom are lawyers) on a managerial or supervisory level, with the balance of employees serving in various supporting capacities.
