

4.00

INSTRUCTIONS RECOMMENDED NOT TO BE GIVEN

4.01 Flight From Accident As Evidence of Negligence

The committee recommends that no instruction on “flight from accident as evidence of negligence” be given.

Comment

The committee recommends that no instruction be given on the subject of flight from the scene of an accident. As in the case of admissions, this is peculiarly a subject of argument for the jury. Moreover, an instruction of this type would unduly single out particular evidence.