

From: Margaret Battersby Black
To: Amy Bowne
Subject: Object to proposed amendment SCT 218
Date: Tuesday, April 30, 2019 5:43:11 PM

---

I am writing to object to the proposed amendment to Rule 218. If my client gets in a car accident and break my arm, requiring surgery, why is it relevant to that inquiry what gynecological history she has?

This is an absurd attempt by the insurance company to allow unfettered access to all personal information in a misguided effort to deter rightfully wronged persons from pursuing legal action.

Margaret P. Battersby Black

LEVIN & PERCONTI

325 North LaSalle Drive

Suite 450

Chicago, Illinois 60654

(312) 332-2872

(312) 332-3112 facsimile

www.levinperconti.com

Concentrating in representing injured victims and their families in cases of nursing home abuse and neglect, medical malpractice, automobile accidents, construction accidents, premises liability, slip & fall accidents, and other serious personal injury and wrongful death cases