

From: Michael Eisenberg
To: Amy Bowne
Subject: Proposal to SCT 218
Date: Tuesday, April 30, 2019 2:21:31 PM

Dear Ms. Brown,

I am extremely concerned about the proposed amendment to Illinois Supreme Court Rule 218. It is unnecessarily broad and will essentially force my client's to give away their privacy rights if they choose to file a claim for bodily injury. There is nothing to narrow what can be discovered.

Why would be punish the victim of a tort? What benefit does this serve?

Thank you for your attention to this matter,

--

Michael J. Eisenberg | Partner |
Rosenberg, Eisenberg & Associates, LLC
2340 S. Arlington Heights Road, Suite 202
Arlington Heights, Illinois 60005
Phone (847) 640-1676 (office)
Visit our Website

Rosenberg, Eisenberg & Associates is a well renowned law firm concentrating in all types of personal injury, workers' compensation, medical malpractice, nursing home, and wrongful death litigation.

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: This e-mail transmission (and/or the attachments accompanying it) may contain confidential information belonging to the sender which is protected by the attorney-client privilege. The information is intended only for the use of the intended recipient. If you are not the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any disclosure, copying, distribution or the taking of any action in reliance on the contents of this information is strictly prohibited. Any unauthorized interception of this transmission is illegal. If you have received this transmission in error, please promptly notify the sender by reply e-mail, and then destroy all copies of the transmission.

HIPAA Compliance Notice: This Internet message and any attachments may contain health related information that is protected by federal and state laws and may be protected health information under HIPAA privacy law provisions. Dissemination or disposal of protected health information may be done only in compliance with HIPAA and other applicable law.