NOTE: If there are any words or terms used in these instructions that you do not understand, please visit Illinois Legal Aid Online at ilao.info/glossary. What is an Appearance?

- An Appearance is a form you file with the Supreme Court Clerk to tell the Court and the other parties that you are participating in the court case.
- It also gives the Court and other parties your name and address so they may contact you about the case.

When do I need to use the Appearance form?

- For petitioner/appellant: You do not need to file an Appearance if you filed a Petition for Leave to Appeal (the petition serves as petitioner's entry of appearance).
- For respondent/appellee: You do not need to file an Appearance if you filed an Answer to Petition for Leave to Appeal (the answer serves as respondent's entry of appearance). If you do not file an Answer to Petition for Leave to Appeal but want notice of the disposition of the Petition for Leave to Appeal, a request for such notice should be submitted to the clerk in the Springfield office per Supreme Court Rule 315\(f\).

For both parties:

- If you are not a lawyer, you can only file an Appearance for yourself, not for anyone else.
- If you had a lawyer in the appeal, but your lawyer stopped representing you, you need to file an Appearance if you are now going to represent yourself.

Why does the Appearance form ask for my email address?

The email address (if you have one) and mailing address you put on the form are where important legal documents will be sent to you. You should use an email account that you check every day. If you do not check your email every day, you may miss important information and documents from other parties or from the court.

Where can I find the forms I need?

You can find the forms at: ilcourts.info/forms.

What costs will I need to pay to file an Appearance?

- There is a fee for filing an Appearance with the Supreme Court Clerk. Under Supreme Court Rule 313\(a\), an appellant or petitioner must pay a filing fee of $50.00 and the respondent or appellee must pay a $30 filing fee when they file an Appearance or upon the filing of any other document (such as a Petition for Leave to Appeal or Answer to Petition for Leave to Appeal).
- If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, you can ask the Court to file for free or at a reduced cost by filing the Application for Waiver of Court Fees. This is a separate set of forms you can find at: ilcourts.info/forms.

What do I do after I fill out the Appearance form?

Step 1: Send your Appearance to all other parties.

- You must send your Appearance to the other parties in the case. If any party has a lawyer, you must send your Appearance to the lawyer.
- If you and the person you're sending the Appearance to have an email address, you must send it by email or through the e-filing system. If you or the person you're sending the Appearance to does not have an email address, you may give it to the other person by personal hand delivery, mail, or third-party commercial carrier (for example, FedEx or UPS).
- Complete the Proof of Delivery with information to show how you sent your Appearance to each party. The Proof of Delivery has room for 3 parties. If you are sending your Appearance to more than 3 parties, fill out and insert one or more Additional Proof of Delivery forms into the Appearance form.

Step 2: File the Appearance with the Supreme Court Clerk's office.

- You must file your Appearance with the Clerk of the Illinois Supreme Court.

E-filing:

- Court forms are filed by electronic filing, called "e-filing." You do not have to e-file if:
 - you qualify for an exemption (see Not E-filing below) or
 - your case involves a criminal matter.
- Most people e-file their forms using Odyssey eFileIL at ilcourts.info/efile.
- Follow step-by-step instructions and watch videos that walk you through the steps for e-filing at ilcourts.info/efile-info.
- E-filing may not work on a cell phone or tablet. You may need to use a computer to e-file.

- If you do not have access to a computer or if you need help e-filing, take your completed forms to a public library, or a Circuit Clerk, Appellate Clerk, or Supreme Court Clerk's office. These places offer public computers where you can e-file your forms.
 - Depending on your courthouse, you can bring your forms on paper and there may be public computers with a scanner where you can turn your paper forms into electronic files.
 - Librarians and courthouse staff may be able to help you e-file, but they cannot provide legal advice.

Not E-filing:

- Some people are exempt from e-filing, which means they can file paper forms at the courthouse or by mail. People who do not have to e-file are:
 - Inmates in prison or jail who do not have a lawyer.
 - People with a disability that keeps them from e-filing.
- You may also qualify for an exemption from e-filing if:
 - You do not have Internet or computer access in your home, and it is hard for you to travel.
 - You have trouble reading, writing, or speaking English.
 - You are filing documents in a sensitive case, such as an order of protection.
 - You tried to e-file your forms, but you were not able to because the equipment or help you needed was not available.
- To get an exemption from e-filing, use the form at ilcourts.info/forms. If you can't print this form, then ask for it at your local courthouse.
 - File your Certification for Exemption from E-Filing form with your other court forms at the Supreme Court Clerk's office or by mail.
 - Bring or send your signed court forms and at least two copies of your forms to the Supreme Court Clerk's office.
 - If you need to make copies of your forms, you can do that at the Supreme Court Clerk's office. They may charge you to make copies.
