

FAYETTE COUNTY, ILLINOIS - PUBLIC DEFENDER

Fayette County is accepting applications for the office of Public Defender. Fayette County seeks highly motivated individual to serve as Public Defender. Job duties include representing indigent defendants in criminal, traffic and juvenile court on a busy docket. Salary competitive for the area and commensurate with experience. Experience preferred. Benefits include health, dental and vision insurance, retirement, sick days, holidays and vacation. Applicants must be licensed to practice law in Illinois. Direct resumes and cover mail to Judge Joshua Morrison judgemorrison@fourthcircuitil.com. Position will be available as soon as July 1, 2026 and applications will be accepted until position is filled.