Rule 503. Pretrial Release Conditions and Admonishments

(a) Uniform Citation and Complaint as Pretrial Release Form.

When a person is released from custody via a Uniform Citation and Complaint in accordance with the Quasi-criminal and Misdemeanor Pretrial Release Act (725 ILCS 195/0.01 et seq.) and the applicable provisions of article 110 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963 (725 ILCS 5/110-10), the Uniform Citation and Complaint form shall constitute the pretrial release form and shall satisfy the requirements for providing written notice of the applicable conditions of pretrial release.

When a Uniform Citation and Complaint is issued that meets the printing requirements filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court, is properly completed, and provided to the person released, the arresting or issuing officer is not required to provide a separate pretrial release form or additional pretrial release admonishment regarding the conditions stated on the Uniform Citation and Complaint form, unless otherwise required by statute or Supreme Court Rule.

(b) Conditions of Pretrial Release.

The Uniform Citation and Complaint form shall provide the person released with written notice of the applicable conditions of pretrial release, including the requirement to appear at the date, time, and place specified on the citation, to submit to the orders and process of the court, and not to violate any criminal statute of any jurisdiction.

(c) Court-Imposed Conditions.

Nothing in this Rule limits the authority of the court to impose, modify, or revoke conditions of pretrial release as authorized by law. Conditions imposed by the court shall be communicated to the defendant as required by law.
