Grounds for Relief (check all that apply and describe in detail):

Granting Pretrial Release or Denying Petition to Revoke Pretrial Release

- ☐ The court erred in its determination that defendant was not charged with an offense qualifying for denial or revocation of pretrial release or with a violation of a protective order qualifying for revocation of pretrial release.

☐ The court erred in its determination that the State failed to meet its burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that the proof is evident or the presumption great that defendant committed the offense(s) charged.

☐ The court erred in its determination that the State failed to meet its burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that defendant poses a real and present threat to the safety of any person or persons or the community, based on the specific, articulable facts of the case.

☐ The court erred in its determination that the State failed to meet its burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions can mitigate the real and present threat to the safety of any person or persons or the community, based on the specific, articulable facts of the case, or defendant's willful flight.

☐ The court erred in its determination that the conditions of release would reasonably ensure the appearance of defendant for later hearings and prevent defendant from being charged with a subsequent felony or Class A misdemeanor.

☐ Other (explain).

Imposing Conditions of Pretrial Release

☐ The court erred in its determination that the State failed to meet its burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that conditions of pretrial release are necessary.

☐ In determining the conditions of pretrial release, the court failed to take into account the factors set forth in 725 ILCS 5/110-5(a). Specifically, the court failed to consider the following factors (list all that apply):

☐ The court failed to impose mandatory conditions of pretrial release pursuant to 725 ILCS 5/110-10(a). Specifically, the court failed to impose the following conditions (list all that apply):

☐ The court erred in failing to impose additional conditions of release necessary to ensure defendant's appearance in court, ensure that defendant does not commit any criminal offense, ensure that defendant complies with all conditions of pretrial release, prevent defendant's unlawful interference with the orderly administration of justice, or ensure compliance with the rules and procedures of problem-solving courts. (List all additional conditions the court should have imposed.)

☐ Other (explain).
