

9.01C
Definition Of Solicit

The word “solicit” means to command, authorize, urge, incite, request, or advise another to perform an act by any means, including, but not limited to, in person, over the phone, in writing, by computer, or by advertisement of any kind.

Committee Note

720 ILCS 5/11-6 (West 2023).

This definition is to be used when a defendant is charged with indecent solicitation of a child. Do not use the definition of solicit found in Instruction 9.01A.
